CHAPTER vi.

An Act to amend the Grand Junction Waterworks Act, 1878. A.D. 1879.

[23d May 1879.]

WHEREAS by the Grand Junction Waterworks Act, 1878, (in this Act called "the Act of 1878,") it is enacted (section 28) that from and after the passing of that Act, notwithstanding anything contained in any previous Act or Acts relating to the Grand Junction Waterworks Company (therein and in this Act called "the Company"), every proprietor of the Company shall be deemed for the purposes of voting at general assemblies or meetings of the Company to be a proprietor of one share of £50 in respect of every sum of £50 paid up by him on the shares held by him, and shall in respect thereof have the same right as, but no further or other right of voting than, if he were a proprietor of a share of £50 under the Act of the fifty-first year of the reign of King George the Third, chapter 169 (in the Act of 1878 and in this Act called "the Act of 1811"): 41 & 42 Vict. c. cxxxiv.

And whereas the number of votes to which proprietors should be entitled at assemblies or meetings of the Company was defined or declared only by section 19 of the Act of 1811, but by inadvertence so much of the said section 19 of the Act of 1811 as so defined or declared the number of such votes was repealed by section 25 of the Act of 1878, and it is expedient that the provision in the Act of 1811 so repealed be revived; but that object cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament: 51 G. 3. c. clxix.

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same; as follows,

1. This Act may be cited as the Grand Junction Waterworks Act, 1879. Short title.

[Local.–6.]

A.D. 1879.

Reviving certain powers of 51 G. 3. c. clxix. as to voting.

2. From and after the passing of this Act that part of section 25 of the Act of 1878 which repeals so much of section 19 of the Act of 1811 as defines or declares the number of votes to which proprietors shall be entitled at assemblies or meetings of the Company is hereby repealed, and the provision so repealed of the Act of 1811 is hereby revived.
