EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These regulations amend the provisions of the Grant-Aided Secondary Schools (Scotland) Grant Regulations 1959, empowering the Secretary of State to pay to the Managers of secondary schools not managed by education authorities grants in aid of their expenditure on the maintenance of the schools. They provide that the amount of grant which may be paid to the Managers of each school, or group of schools, in respect of the financial year of that school, or group of schools, beginning after 1st April 1968 and subsequent years, shall, save in particular circumstances, be the amount set out in the Schedule. They also provide that any increase in teachers' salaries after 31st March 1968 will not attract grant under the 1959 Regulations.

These regulations also revoke Regulation 6 of the 1959 Regulations which dealt with the payment of transitional grant.
