EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

It is essential, in order that the new Grenada constitution should be brought into force as early as possible this year, that provisions for elections to the new Legislature should be made by local legislation very shortly. It would not, however, be constitutionally proper that such legislation should be enacted by the existing Grenada Legislature in advance of the new constitutional instruments without special enabling provision made by Order in Council. This Order makes the necessary provision and gives the required powers to the existing Legislature.
