A.D. 1889.

or the Local Government Board or exempt dairies milk stores or milkshops or slaughter-houses or any building or thing whatsoever or any body or person from the provisions of any general Act relating to dairies milk or animals already passed or to be passed in this or any future session of Parliament.

PART IV.—FINANCE.

Expenses of executing Act.

64. All expenses incurred by the Corporation in carrying into execution the powers of this Act (except such as are to be paid out of borrowed money) shall be paid as follows (that is to say):—

Expenses incurred under Part II. for payments on account of the local board and local authorities and under Part III. out of the district fund and general district rate;

All other expenses out of the borough fund and borough rate.

Power to borrow.

65. The Corporation may from time to time (in addition to any moneys they now are or hereafter may be authorised to borrow) borrow at interest on the following securities and for the following purposes the following sums:—

On the security of the borough fund and borough rate—

For payment of the costs charges and expenses of and incident to this Act herein-after defined the amount necessary for that purpose;

For repayment of the apportioned part of the existing mortgage debt of the Clee Burial Board the amount of that apportioned part;

For payment of compensation to William Heaford Daubney made under the provisions of this Act the amount necessary for that purpose:

On the security of the district fund and general district rate—

For repayment of the existing mortgage debt of the local board of Clee the amount of that debt; and

For payment of compensation to the officers and servants of the local authorities made under the provisions of this Act the amount necessary for that purpose.

The following provisions of the Public Health Act 1875 (that is to say):—

Sub-sections 4 5 and 6 of section 234 (Regulations as to Exercise of Borrowing Powers);

Section 236 (Form of Mortgage);

Section 237 (Register of Mortgages);

Section 238 (Transfer of Mortgages);

shall extend and apply mutatis mutandis to and in relation to mortgages made under the powers of this Act.

Application of moneys from sale &c. of land.

66. The Corporation shall apply all moneys from time to time received by them in respect of any sales exchanges or disposition of lands and premises by this Act authorised or by way of fine or premium on any lease in or towards paying off moneys borrowed and for the time being owing under this Act or if there shall be no moneys owing under this Act such proceeds shall be applied in or towards paying off any other moneys for the time being owing by the Corporation: Provided that such proceeds when used to pay off borrowed moneys shall not be applicable to the payment of instalments or to payments into the sinking fund except to such extent and upon such terms as may be approved by the Local Government Board.

Annual return to Local Government Board with respect to sinking fund.

67. The treasurer shall within twenty-one days after the expiration of each year during which any sum is required to be set apart for any sinking fund or any instalment transmit to the Local Government Board a return in such form as may be prescribed by that board and verified by statutory declaration if so required by them showing the amount which has been paid as an instalment or invested for the purpose of such sinking fund during the year preceding the making of such return and the description of the securities upon which the same has been invested and also showing the purposes to which any portion of the moneys invested for the sinking fund and the interest thereof have been applied during the same period and the total amount remaining invested at the end of the year and in the event of any wilful default in making such return such treasurer shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds which shall be paid to the Local Government Board and shall be recoverable by that board in the same manner as penalties recoverable under the Public Health Act 1875 in a summary manner may be recovered by parties aggrieved within the meaning of that Act.

If it appears to the Local Government Board by such return or otherwise that the Corporation have failed to pay any instalment or to set apart any sum required for any sinking fund or have applied any portion of the moneys set apart for that fund or any interest thereof to any other purposes than those authorised by this Act the Local Government Board may by order direct that a sum not exceeding double the amount in respect of which such default shall have been made shall be set apart and invested as part of the sinking fund and such order shall be enforceable by writ of mandamus to be obtained by the Local Government Board out of the High Court of Justice.

A.D. 1889.

The provisions of this section shall mutatis mutandis apply to appropriations and annual repayments.

Corporation not to regard trusts.

68. The Corporation shall not be bound to see to the execution of any trust whether expressed or implied or constructive to which any loan or security for loan given by them may be subject but the receipt of the person in whose name any loan or security for loan stands in the register book of the Corporation shall from time to time be a sufficient discharge to the Corporation in respect thereof notwithstanding any trusts to which such loan or security may be subject and whether or not the Corporation have had express or implied notice of any such trust or of any charge or incumbrance upon or transfer of such loan or security or any part thereof or interest thereon not entered in their register and the Corporation shall not be bound to see to the application of the money paid on any such receipt or be answerable or accountable for any loss misapplication or non-application of any of such money.

Power to borrow under Local Loans Act 1875.

69. The Corporation may if they think fit borrow any moneys which they are by this Act authorised to borrow under the powers and subject to the provisions of the Local Loans Act 1875 by means of a loan or loans to be raised by the issue of debentures debenture stock or annuity certificates or partly in one way and partly in another. Any moneys borrowed by the Corporation in manner by this section authorised shall be a charge upon and shall be paid out of the same funds and rates as they would be charged upon and paid out of if raised by way of mortgage under this Act and such funds and rates shall in each case be deemed to be the local rate as defined by the Local Loans Act 1875. Every such loan shall be discharged within the time prescribed in that behalf by the Local Government Board and such discharge or any part thereof shall be effected by means of a sinking fund if the Corporation shall so think fit: Provided always that if the Corporation at any time think fit to form any such sinking fund all sums paid into the same shall be as soon as may be invested by the Corporation in the manner in which sinking funds are by this Act authorised to be invested or applied in paying off a portion of the principal moneys owing by the Corporation.

Power to reborrow.

70. If the Corporation pay off any money borrowed under the powers of this Act otherwise than by means of instalments or of a sinking fund or out of the proceeds of the sale of lands or other property or out of fines or premiums on leases they may from time to time reborrow the same: Provided that the time for the repayment of any moneys so reborrowed shall not be extended beyond the unexpired portion of the term in that behalf prescribed and that for the purpose of repayment the moneys reborrowed and the moneys originally borrowed shall be deemed the same loan.

Sinking fund how to be invested

71. All sums paid into any sinking fund created by the Corporation under the provisions of this Act shall be as soon as may be invested in any manner in which trustees are by law for the time being authorised to invest trust moneys or in any debentures debenture stock or annuity certificates issued under the provisions of any Act of Parliament or under the order or sanction of any Government Department by any local authority other than the Corporation.

Application of borrowed moneys.

72. All moneys borrowed by the Corporation under the powers of this Act shall be applied only to the purposes for which they are respectively authorised to be borrowed and to which capital is properly applicable.

PART V.—MISCELLANEOUS.

Judges &c. not disqualified.

73. A judge of any court or a justice shall not be disqualified from acting in the execution of this Act by reason of his being liable to any rate or by reason of his being a member of the council.

Form and service of notices by Corporation.

74. Any notice or demand made given delivered or served under this or any other Act or any byelaw by the Corporation may be either in print or in writing (including lithograph) or partly in print and partly in writing (including lithograph) and shall be sufficiently authenticated by the signature of the town clerk or other duly authorised officer of the Corporation being affixed thereto or stamped thereon and a copy thereof respectively so authenticated shall be receivable in evidence without the production of the original and it shall be sufficient in all cases where any such document is required to be given to or served on the owner or occupier of any property to address it to such owner or occupier by his description as owner or occupier (as the case may be) of the property (naming it) in respect of which it is given or served without further name or description and any such document may be addressed to owners or occupiers of any number of adjoining or neighbouring properties collectively and when so addressed may be served on more owners or occupiers than one (so that separate copies be served on the respective owners and occupiers of the several properties concerned) and any such document may be served on any owner occupier or other person either personally or by sending the same through the post by a prepaid letter addressed to him by name at his last known place of abode or business or by delivering the same to some inmate of his last known or usual place of abode or business or in case of an occupier of such property (being a building) to any inmate of such building or if the property is unoccupied and the place of abode of the person to be served is after diligent inquiry unknown it shall be sufficient to affix it or a copy thereof upon some conspicuous part of such property. Any such document so served by post as aforesaid shall be deemed to have been served at the time when the letter containing the same would be delivered in the ordinary course of the post and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that such document was properly addressed and posted: Provided always that in the case of a railway or other public company any such document shall be delivered or sent by post addressed to the secretary to the company at their principal office or place of business.

General provisions as to byelaws.

75. All the provisions with respect to byelaws contained in sections 182 to 185 (both inclusive) of the Public Health Act 1875 (except so much thereof as relates to byelaws of a rural sanitary authority) shall apply to all byelaws and regulations from time to time made by the Corporation under the powers of this Act.

As to appeal

76. Any person deeming himself aggrieved by any order judgment determination or requirement or the withholding of any certificate consent or approval of or by the Corporation or of or by any officer or valuer of the Corporation or by any conviction or order made by a court of summary jurisdiction under any provision of this Act may appeal (but in case where application for relief is authorised to be made to the Corporation then only after such application) to the next practicable court of quarter sessions under and according to the provisions of section 269 of the Public Health Act 1875 as amended by the Summary Jurisdiction Act 1884.

Informations by whom to be laid.

77. All informations under or for the breach of any enactment for the time being in force within the borough or any byelaw thereunder may be laid by the superintendent of the police of the borough.
