ELIZABETH II

1964 CHAPTER ix

An Act to confer further powers upon the Harwich Harbour Conservancy Board in respect of its reserve fund. [10th June 1964]

WHEREAS the Harwich Harbour Conservancy Board were incorporated by the Harwich Harbour Act, 1863, and by that Act and by the Harwich Harbour Acts, 1864 and 1865, the Harwich Harbour Order, 1920 (confirmed by the Pier and Harbour Orders Confirmation (No. 1) Act, 1920), the Harwich Harbour Act, 1928, the Harwich Harbour Act, 1938, and the Harwich Harbour Act, 1949 (all of which Acts and Order, 1863 to 1949, by the last-mentioned Act are defined as the Harwich Harbour Acts and Order, 1863 to 1949), powers were conferred upon the Conservancy Board for the improvement and better regulation of the Harwich Harbour:

And whereas by section 15 of the Harwich Harbour Act, 1949, the Conservancy Board were empowered to form and maintain a reserve fund not exceeding at any time the sum of £50,000, which fund should be applicable to answer any deficiency at any time happening in the income of the Conservancy Board or to meet any extraordinary claim or demand in respect of the undertaking or for the payment of the cost of renewing any part of the works forming part thereof:

And whereas it is expedient that the provisions of the Harwich Harbour Act, 1949, with regard to the provisions of a reserve fund should be amended:
