26. Except as by this Act provided the profits of the Company to be divided among the shareholders in any year shall not exceed the following rates (which are in this Act referred to as "the standard rates of dividend") (that is to say) On the original capital the rate of ten pounds in respect of every one hundred pounds of such capital and on the additional capital to be raised under the powers of this Act the rate of seven pounds in respect of every one hundred pounds actually paid up of such capital as shall be issued as ordinary capital and the rate of six pounds in respect of every one hundred pounds actually paid up of such capital as shall be issued as preference capital.

Dividends on different classes of stock or shares to be paid proportionately.

27. In case in any half year the funds of the Company applicable to dividend shall be insufficient to pay the full amount of dividend at the prescribed maximum rate on each class of ordinary stock or shares in the capital of the Company a proportionate reduction shall be made in the dividend of each class.

New shares or stock to be offered by auction or tender.

28. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained the Company shall when any shares or stock created under the powers of this Act are to be issued and before offering the same to the holder of any other shares or stock in the Company and whether the ordinary shares or ordinary stock of the Company are or is at a premium or not offer the same for sale by public auction or by tender in such manner at such times and subject to such conditions of sale as the Company shall from time to time determine Provided that at any such sale no single lot shall comprise more than one hundred pounds nominal value of shares or stock and that the reserved price put upon such shares or stock shall not be less than the nominal amount thereof and notice of the amount of such reserved price shall be sent by the Company in a sealed letter to the Board of Trade not less than twenty-four hours before the day of auction or the last day for the reception of tenders as the case may be and such letter may be opened after such day of auction or last day for the reception of tenders and not sooner and provided that no priority of tender shall be allowed to any holder of shares or stock in the Company except that if any bidding or offer by tender of any holder or holders of shares or stock be the same in amount as any bid or offer made by any other person the bidding or offer of such holder or holders of shares or stock shall be accepted in preference.

Purchase money of capital sold by auction to be paid within three months.

29. It shall be one of the conditions of any sale of shares or stock under this Act that the full price thereof including any premium given by any purchaser at such sale shall be paid to the Company within three months after such sale.

Notice to be given as to sale &c. of shares or stock by auction.

30. The intention to sell any such shares or stock by auction or by tender shall be communicated in writing to the secretary of the committee of the London Stock Exchange and to the clerk to the Hayward's Heath District Council at least twenty-eight days before the day of auction or the last day for the reception of tenders as the case may be and notice of such intention shall be duly advertised once in each of two consecutive weeks in one or more local newspapers circulating within the limits of supply.

Shares or stock not sold by auction or tender to be offered to shareholders.

31. When any shares or stock created under the powers of this Act have been offered for sale by auction or tender and not sold the same shall be offered at the reserved price put upon the same respectively for the purpose of sale by auction or tender to the holders of ordinary shares or ordinary stock of the Company in manner provided by the Companies Clauses Act 1863 Provided always that any shares or stock so offered and not accepted within the time prescribed by the said Act shall again be offered for sale by public auction or by tender in the manner and subject to the provisions of this Act with respect to the sale of shares and stock created under the powers of this Act but at a lower reserved price than the price put upon the same at the preceding offer thereof for sale by auction or tender and any stock or shares not then sold shall be again offered to the holders of ordinary shares or ordinary stock at the last-mentioned reserved price and so from time to time until the whole of such shares or stock is sold.

Application of premium arising on issue of shares or stock.

32. Any sum of money which shall arise from the issue of any such shares or stock by way of premium after deducting therefrom the expenses of and incident to such issue shall not be considered as profits of the Company but shall be expended in extending or improving the works of the Company or in paying off money borrowed or owing on mortgage by the Company and shall not be considered as part of the capital of the Company entitled to dividend Provided that in any case where a power to raise money by borrowing or to create an insurance fund is made proportionate to the paid-up capital the premium received from the sale of shares or stock by auction or tender as herein-before provided shall for such purpose be reckoned as part of the paid-up capital.

If profits exceed the amount limited excess may be invested and form an insurance fund.

33. If the clear profits of the undertaking of the Company in any year amount to a larger sum than is sufficient to pay the dividend on the preference capital if any and dividend on the ordinary capital at the authorised rate the excess beyond the sum necessary for that purpose may from time to time to the extent of one per centum per annum upon the paid-up capital of the Company be invested in Government or other securities and the dividends and interest arising from such securities shall also be invested in the same or like securities in order that the same may accumulate at compound interest until the fund so formed amounts to a sum equal to one-twentieth of the paid-up capital of the Company which sum shall form an insurance fund to meet any extraordinary claim demand or charge which may at any time arise against or fall upon the Company from accident fire strikes or other circumstances which in the opinion of a court of summary jurisdiction

due care and management could not have prevented and if such fund be at any time reduced it may thereafter be again made up to the said sum and so from time to time as often as such reduction shall happen Provided that when and so often as the said fund shall reach one-twentieth part of the paid-up capital the interest thereon shall be carried to the credit of the fund available for dividend Provided also that resort may from time to time be had to the insurance fund to meet any extraordinary claim or demand as aforesaid although such fund may not at the time have reached or may have been reduced below the full amount of one-twentieth as aforesaid.

Application of excess of profits over authorised rate of dividend.

34. If the clear profits of the undertaking of the Company in any year amount to a larger sum than is sufficient to pay the dividend on the preference capital if any and dividend at the authorised rate on the ordinary capital of the Company the excess or such portion of it as was not carried to the insurance fund shall be carried to the credit of the divisible profits of the undertaking for the next following year.

Power to create a reserve fund out of dividends in excess of the standard rate of dividend and application thereof.

35. Where in any year the dividend of the Company on the ordinary capital of the Company shall exceed the standard rate by reason of the price charged by the Company for gas in such year being below the standard price then out of the amount of the divisible profits of the Company applicable to the payment of such excess of dividend the Company may in such year set apart such sum as they shall think fit and all sums (if any) so set apart by the Company and any reserve or other fund of the Company existing at the passing of this Act may be invested in Government or other securities and the dividends and interest arising from such securities may also be invested in the same or the like securities in order that the same may accumulate at compound interest and the fund so formed shall be called "the reserve fund" and shall be applicable to the payment of dividend in any year in which the clear profits of the Company shall be insufficient to enable the Company in such year to pay the dividend at the authorised rate on the ordinary capital of the Company and save as in this Act provided no sum shall in any year be carried by the Company to any reserve fund.

Power to borrow in respect of additional capital.

36. The Company may from time to time subject to the provisions of this Act borrow on mortgage of the undertaking any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole one-fourth part of the amount of the additional capital by this Act authorised to be raised and at the time actually issued by shares or stock but no part thereof shall bo borrowed until the whole of the shares or stock at the time issued together with the premium (if any) realised on the sale thereof shall have been fully paid up and the Company have proved to the justice who is to certify under the fortieth section of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act 1845 before he so certifies that such shares and stock and premium (if any) have been issued and fully paid up and upon production to such justice of the books of the Company and of such other evidence as he shall think sufficient he shall grant a certificate that the proof aforesaid has been given which certificate shall be sufficient evidence thereof.

Priority of existing mortgages and debentures.

37. All mortgages and debentures granted and issued by the Limited Company before the passing of this Act and subsisting at the passing hereof shall during the continuance of such mortgages and debentures have priority over all mortgages and debenture stock to be granted or created and issued by virtue of this Act.

Appointment of receiver.

38. The mortgagees of the undertaking may enforce payment of arrears of interest or principal or principal and interest due on their mortgages by the appointment of a receiver In order to authorise the appointment of a receiver in respect of arrears of principal the amount owing to the mortgagees by whom the application for a receiver is made shall not be less than five thousand pounds in the whole.

As to conversion of borrowed money into capital.

39. The Company shall not have power to raise the money by this Act authorised to be borrowed on mortgage or by the issue of debenture stock or any part thereof by the creation of shares or stock instead of borrowing or to convert into share capital any money borrowed under the provisions of this Act.

Debenture stock.

40. The Company may create and issue debenture stock subject to the provisions of Part III. of the Companies Clauses Act 1863 but notwithstanding anything therein contained the interest of all debenture stock and of all mortgages at any time created and issued or granted by the Company under this or any subsequent Act shall subject to the provisions of any subsequent Act rank pari passu (without respect to the dates of the securities or of the Acts of Parliament or resolutions by which the stock and mortgages were authorised) and shall have priority over all principal moneys secured by such mortgages Notice of the effect of this enactment shall be endorsed on all mortgages and certificates of debenture stock.

Priority of mortgages and debenture stock over other debts &c.

41. All money to be raised by the Company on mortgage or debenture stock under the provisions of this Act shall have priority against the Company and the property from time to time of the Company over all other claims on account of any debts incurred or engagements entered into by them after the passing of this Act

A.D. 1895.

Provided always that this priority shall not affect any claim against the Company or their property in respect of any rentcharge granted or to be granted by them in pursuance of the Lands Clauses Acts or in respect of any rent or sum reserved by or payable under any lease granted or made to the Company which is entitled to rank in priority to or pari passu with the interest on their mortgages or debenture stock nor shall anything in this section contained affect any claim for land taken used or occupied by the Company for the purposes of the Company's undertaking and works or injuriously affected thereby or by the exercise of any of the powers conferred on the Company.
