PART V

GENERAL

Paragraph 11

For the purposes of calculating any period of employment qualifying a worker for an annual holiday or for any accrued holiday remuneration under this Schedule, the worker shall be treated—

(a) as if he were employed for a week in respect of any week in which—

(i) he has worked for the employer for not less than eight hours and has performed some work for which statutory minimum remuneration is payable;

(ii) he has been absent throughout the week or has worked for the employer for less than eight hours by reason of the proved illness of, or accident to, the worker, provided that the number of weeks which may be treated as weeks of employment for such reasons shall not exceed eight weeks at any one time in the period of twelve months immediately preceding the commencement of the holiday season;

(iii) he has been suspended throughout the week owing to shortage of work in the period of twelve months last mentioned; and

(b) as if he were employed on any day of holiday allowed under the provisions of this Schedule, or of Order H. (48) as amended by Order H. (52), and for the purposes of the provisions of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph, a worker who is absent on such a holiday shall be treated as having worked thereon the number of hours ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week for the employer on work for which statutory minimum remuneration is payable.

Paragraph 12

In this Schedule, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say:—

"normal working week" means the number of days on which it has been usual for the worker to work in a week in the employment of the employer in the twelve months immediately preceding the worker's first period of annual holiday or immediately preceding the 17th day of October if no part of the annual holiday has been allowed before that date or, where under paragraphs 8 and 9 of this Schedule accrued holiday remuneration is payable on the termination of the employment, in the twelve months immediately preceding the date of the termination of the employment:

Provided that—

(i) part of a day shall count as a day;

(ii) no account shall be taken of any week in which the worker did not perform any work for which statutory minimum remuneration has been fixed.

"statutory minimum remuneration" means statutory minimum remuneration (other than holiday remuneration) fixed by a wages regulation order made by the Minister to give effect to proposals submitted to him by the Council.

"week" in paragraphs 3 and 11 means "pay week".

Paragraph 13

The provisions of this Schedule are without prejudice to any agreement for the allowance of any further holidays with pay or for the payment of additional holiday remuneration.
