EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order revokes the remaining provisions of the Household Flour Prices Order 1976 and the Household Flour Prices (Amendment) (No. 2) Order 1977.

The revocation of those provisions of the orders which regulated the maximum prices which could be charged for the sale of household flour subsidised under section 1 of the Prices Act 1974 will come into operation on 27th June 1977, as payments under section 1 have been discontinued.

The revocation of those provisions of the Household Flour Prices Order 1976 which prescribe conditions to be observed by claimants or recipients of subsidy relating to high extraction wheat flour and by subsequent owners of such flour to whom notice of the conditions was given will come into operation on 27th June 1979 when the 2 year period during which records must be retained will have terminated.
