(c) In relation to any interest already acquired by agreement, compensation will be payable if the amount which would have been payable if the interest had been purchased compulsorily on the old basis is less than the full compulsory purchase value calculated on the new basis; in those circumstances compensation would be equal to the difference between the full compulsory purchase value calculated on the new basis and the amount already paid.

If no objection is made by any of the persons on whom notices are required to be served, or if all objections are withdrawn, the Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, confirm the order with or without modifications; in any other case he is required, before confirming the order, to cause a public local inquiry to be held, or to afford the objector an opportunity of appearing before and being heard by a person appointed for the purpose, and to consider any objection not withdrawn and the report of the person who held the inquiry or the person appointed to hear the objector, and he may then confirm the order with or without modifications.

5. The Secretary of State has power to extend the order to any land in respect of which notice was required to be served, but he shall not do so unless he has first served notice on the local authority, every owner, lessee and occupier and, so far as it is reasonably practicable to ascertain such persons, on the creditor in every heritable security, and afforded them an opportunity to make their views known.

Amount(s) previously paid:
Sum now payable by virtue of paragraph 14 of Schedule 10A to the Housing Act 1974:

NOTES FOR YOUR INFORMATION

1. The interest referred to in this notice was acquired on the basis that the above-mentioned house(s) [6][was] [were] [6] [unfit for human habitation] [below the tolerable standard] and would be demolished. Now that the house(s) [6][is] [are] no longer to be demolished you are entitled to compensation equal to the full compulsory purchase value of the interest assessed on a new basis, but any amount or amounts previously paid in respect of the acquisition of the interest will be deducted. It also shows the amount or amounts previously paid, if any, which must be deducted, and the sum which is now payable.

2. The figures shown in the Schedule do not include any amounts of interest which may have been paid or may be payable. The sum payable by virtue of paragraph 14 of Schedule 10A to the Housing Act 1974 shown in the above Schedule carries interest at the prescribed rate from the time of entry by the local authority, or from vesting of the interest in the land, whichever is the earlier, until payment.

3. If you accept the above particulars of the new amount you should inform the local authority of that fact within 21 days from service of this Notice. If you do not do so, or if you inform them that you disagree with the amount stated, the question of disputed compensation will be referred to the Lands Tribunal for Scotland.
