Made - - - -	15*th October*, 1952
Laid before Parliament	17*th October*, 1952
Coming into Operation	1*st November*, 1952

H.L.G.3207

The Minister of Housing and Local Government (in these regulations referred to as "the Minister"), in exercise of his powers under subsection (4) of section 20 and subsection (1) of section 35 of the Housing Act, 1949(a), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby makes the following regulations:—

1. These regulations may be cited as the Housing (Improvement Grants) (Expenses) Regulations, 1952, and shall come into operation on the first day of November, 1952.

2. The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), applies to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. In lieu of the amounts of one hundred pounds and six hundred pounds mentioned in subsection (4) of section 20 of the Housing Act, 1949, the Minister hereby prescribes the amounts of one hundred and fifty pounds and eight hundred pounds respectively.

Given under the official seal of the Minister of Housing and Local Government this fifteenth day of October, nineteen hundred and fifty-two.

(L.S.)

Harold Macmillan,
Minister of Housing and Local Government.

We consent to these regulations.

Herbert Butcher,
Dennis Vosper,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

the fifteenth day of October, nineteen hundred and fifty-two.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

Claims to improvement grants under the Housing Act, 1949, cannot be entertained by local authorities without the consent of the Minister except where the estimated cost of the improvement works does not exceed £600 per dwelling or such other sum as the Minister may prescribe. The regulations prescribe a new limit of £800 and also substitute £150 for £100 as the minimum amount per dwelling for which such claims can be entertained.
