2.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Hydrocarbon Oil Duties (Drawback) (No. 2) Order, 1958.

(2) This Order shall come into operation on the twenty-seventh day of August, nineteen hundred and fifty-eight.

Dated this twenty-second day of August, 1958.

Edward Wakefield,
Harwood Harrison,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of
Her Majesty's Treasury.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note does not form part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order increases the rate used for determining the quantity of hydrocarbon oil in respect of which drawback is allowed as respects rubber tyres of certain kinds. The change applies in respect of articles which are exported, or shipped, or deposited in warehouse for use as stores, on or after 27th August, 1958.

1958 No. 1718

The Hydrocarbon Oil Duties (Drawback) (No. 3) Order, 1958

Made - - - -	17th October, 1958
Laid before the House of Commons	21st October, 1958
Coming into Operation	22nd October, 1958

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by virtue of the powers conferred on them by section two hundred and three of the Customs and Excise Act, 1952(a), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following Order: —

1.—(1) As respects articles of footwear of any class or description specified in the Schedule to this Order drawback shall be allowed in respect of hydrocarbon oil used as a material, solvent, preservative or finish in the manufacture or preparation of the articles, and shall be so allowed as respects the duty on a quantity of hydrocarbon oil determined according to the rate so specified in relation to that class or description.

(2) In the foregoing paragraph the expression "drawback" means drawback under section two hundred and three of the Customs and Excise Act, 1952, of any customs or excise duty on hydrocarbon oils.

2. Paragraphs 17 and 18 of the First Schedule to the Hydrocarbon Oil Duties (Drawback) (No. 1) Order, 1957(b), are hereby revoked.

(a) 15 & 16 Geo. 6 & 1 Eliz. 2. c. 44. (b) S.I. 1957/823 (1957 I, p. 1133).

3.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Hydrocarbon Oil Duties (Drawback) (No. 3) Order, 1958.

(2) This Order shall come into operation on the twenty-second day of October, nineteen hundred and fifty-eight.

Dated this seventeenth day of October, 1958.

Edward Wakefield,
P. E. O. Bryan,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

SCHEDULE

Class or description of article	Rate for determining quantity of hydrocarbon oil
	Gallons for 1,000 pairs of the article
1. Articles of footwear of which the whole of the outer part of the uppers is made of rubber, not being articles of the moulded type, the following:—
(a) fishing boots, flying boots, industrial boots, motor-cycling boots and motor-cycling overboots	33·3
(b) youths' light wellingtons (dull) ...	20·2
(c) women's and boys' light wellingtons (bright)	25·5
(d) misses' and children's light wellingtons	14·7
(e) babies' (toddlers) light wellingtons ...	9·3

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note does not form part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order reduces the rates used for determining the quantities of hydrocarbon oil in respect of which drawback is allowed as respects articles of footwear in Classes 1 and 2 (a). Articles of multiple-texture canvas are now classed with those of double-texture instead of with those of single-texture. It also provides for the allowance of drawback in respect of the articles of footwear in Classes 2 (b) and 2 (c) which have not previously been eligible.

COMMONWEALTH PREFERENCE

1958 No. 1874

The Commonwealth Preference Regulations, 1958

Made - - - -	11*th November*, 1958
Laid before the House of Commons	17*th November*, 1958
Coming into Operation	1*st January*, 1959

The Board of Trade in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by subsection (2) of section 12 of the Import Duties Act, 1958(a), hereby make the following Regulations:—

Manufacture in the Commonwealth preference area

1.—(1) For the purposes of the provisions of the Import Duties Act, 1958, dealing with Commonwealth preference on customs duties both under that Act and other Acts, goods which have been manufactured in the Commonwealth preference area shall, nonetheless, not be treated as manufactured in that area unless at least the appropriate proportion of the costs of their manufacture is attributable to Commonwealth expenditure, as defined in Regulation 3.

(2) Subject to the provisions of Regulation 4 (which relates to manufactured sugar and tobacco), the appropriate proportion, for the purposes of duties chargeable on any goods either as such or in respect of any article contained in them as a part or ingredient, shall be—

(a) in the case of goods falling within a description of goods specified in Part I of the Schedule hereto ...	75 per cent.;
(b) in the case of goods not falling within any such description but falling within a description of goods specified in Part II of the Schedule hereto	50 per cent.;
(c) in the case of any other goods	25 per cent.

(a) 6 & 7 Eliz. 2. c. 6.
