The Import Duties (Drawback) (No. 13) Order, 1949

1949 No. 2109

Made - - - - - - - -	17th November, 1949
Laid before the House of Commons	18th November, 1949
Coming into Operation - - -	24th November, 1949

Whereas the Import Duties (Drawback) (No. 9) Order, 1949(a), made under the Second Schedule to the Import Duties Act, 1932(b), provided for the allowance of drawback as respect duties chargeable under Part I of the said Act in respect of machinery belting (including conveyor and elevator bands) of the class or description specified in that Order:

And whereas after consultation with the appropriate Department it appears to the Treasury to be expedient that the said Order should be revoked:

Now, therefore, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, by virtue of the powers conferred on them by subsection (5) of section nineteen of the Import Duties Act, 1932, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following Order:—

1. The Import Duties (Drawback) (No. 9) Order, 1949, is hereby revoked.

2.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Import Duties (Drawback) (No. 13) Order, 1949.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(c), shall apply in the interpretation of this Order as it applies in the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(3) This Order shall come into operation on the 24th day of November, nineteen hundred and forty-nine.

Dated this 17th day of November, 1949.

Richard Adams,
Joseph Henderson,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note does not form part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order revokes the Import Duties (Drawback) (No. 9) Order, 1949, under which drawback was allowed on machinery belting (including conveyor and elevator bands) of rubber (including balata and gutta percha) and canvas, where the value of the belting at importation exceeded £18 15s. per cwt.
