EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note does not form part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Drawback of Customs duty is allowed in respect of imported linseed oil used in the manufacture of certain goods, when such goods are exported or shipped as stores.

This Order alters the quantities of linseed oil to be taken into account in calculating the drawback so payable on exports of linoleum, floorcloth and cork carpets.

1952 No. 979

The Import Duties (Exemptions) (No. 1) Order, 1952

Made - - - -	15*th May*, 1952
Laid before the House of Commons	19*th May*, 1952
Coming into Operation	22*nd May*, 1952

Whereas the Treasury, after consultation with the appropriate department, are of opinion that the goods specified in Article 1 of this Order ought to be exempted from the provisions of section one of the Import Duties Act, 1932(a), for the period which is so specified :

(a) 22 & 23 Geo. 5. c. 8.

Now, therefore, the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by virtue of the powers conferred on them by section one and subsection (5) of section nineteen of the Import Duties Act, 1932, by subsection (3) of section ten of the Finance Act, 1934(a), by subsection (1) of section seven of the Finance Act, 1936(b), and by section one of the Import Duties (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1939(c), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following Order :—

1. For the period of one year beginning with the coming into operation of this Order, there shall be added to the First Schedule to the Import Duties Act, 1932, the following goods, namely :—

fork bits of metal having six or more prongs, for forks of the types used in agriculture or in mining.

2. Accordingly for the period specified in the foregoing Article the said Schedule as amended by the Import Duties (Exemptions Consolidation) Order, 1935(d), and by subsequent Orders, and the Second Annex to the said Order of 1935 as amended by subsequent Orders, shall be further amended by the addition to Group XIV of the following paragraph :—

" (6) Fork bits of metal having six or more prongs, for forks of the types used in agriculture or in mining,".

3.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Import Duties (Exemptions) (No. 1) Order, 1952.

(2) This Order shall come into operation on the twenty-second day of May, nineteen hundred and fifty-two.

Dated this 15th day of May, 1952.

Herbert Butcher,
Edward Heath,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note does not form part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Metal fork bits with six or more prongs, for forks of the types used in agriculture or in mining, were (with other fork bits) temporarily exempted, for a period ending on 21st May, 1952, from the duty of 15 per cent. ad valorem otherwise chargeable thereon under the Import Duties Act, 1932. This Order provides for the continuation of the exemption from duty for such fork bits (only) for a further period of one year, ending 21st May, 1953.
