The Import Duties (Exemptions) (No. 17) Order, 1951

1951 No. 2258

Made - - - -	20th December, 1951
Laid before the House of Commons	27th December, 1951
Coming into Operation	1st January, 1952

Whereas the Treasury, after consultation with the appropriate department, are of opinion that certain barrels and drums, made wholly or mainly of iron or steel, which, by virtue of the Import Duties (Exemptions) (No. 2) Order, 1951(a), are for the period beginning with the date of the coming into operation of that Order and ending with the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-one, exempted from the general ad valorem duty under section one of the Import Duties Act, 1932(b), ought to continue to be so exempted for a further period of twelve months:

Now, therefore, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, by virtue of the powers conferred on them by subsection (5) of section nineteen of the Import Duties Act, 1932, and by section one of the Import Duties (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1939(c), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following Order:—

1. The Import Duties (Exemptions) (No. 2) Order, 1951 (which provided that barrels and drums of the description specified in Article 1 of that Order should for the period beginning with the date of the coming into operation of that Order and ending with the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-one, be added to the First Schedule to the Import Duties Act, 1932), shall have effect as if in the said Article 1 there were substituted for the words " nineteen hundred and fifty-one " the words " nineteen hundred and fifty-two ".

2. This Order may be cited as the Import Duties (Exemptions) (No. 17) Order, 1951.

3. This Order shall come into operation on the 1st day of January, nineteen hundred and fifty-two.

Dated this 20th day of December, 1951.

H. R. Mackeson,
Edward Heath,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note does not form part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order continues for a further period of one year, ending on the 31st December, 1952, the exemption of certain iron or steel barrels and drums from duty chargeable under the Import Duties Act, 1932.
