1956 No. 684

The Import Duties (Exemptions) (No. 5) Order, 1956

Made - - - -	8*th May*, 1956
Laid before the House of Commons	11*th May*, 1956
Coming into Operation	13*th May*, 1956

Whereas the Treasury, after consultation with the appropriate department, are of opinion that nickel and certain alloys containing nickel (being the goods which by the Import Duties (Exemptions) (No. 3) Order, 1955(a), were exempted from the provisions of section one of the Import Duties Act, 1932(b), for a period of twelve months ending on the twelfth day of May, nineteen hundred and fifty-six) ought to be so exempted for a further period of twelve months:

Now, therefore, the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by virtue of the powers conferred on them by section one and subsection (5) of section nineteen of the Import Duties Act, 1932, by subsection (3) of section ten of the Finance Act, 1934(c), by section seven of the Finance Act, 1936(d), and by section one of the Import Duties (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1939(e), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following Order:—

1. In Article 1 of the Import Duties (Exemptions) (No. 3) Order, 1955, for the words " twelve months " there shall be substituted the words " two years ".

2.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Import Duties (Exemptions) (No. 5) Order, 1956.

(2) This Order shall come into operation on the thirteenth day of May, nineteen hundred and fifty-six.

Dated this eighth day of May, 1956.

Martin Redmayne,
Peter Legh,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order continues, for a further period of one year ending on 12th May, 1957, the current exemption from duty under the Import Duties Act, 1932, of nickel and ferro-nickel alloys in certain forms.
