4. Accordingly, the principal Order shall have effect subject to the following amendment, that is to say:—

In paragraph (8) of Group XI of the Table of Duties for the words set out in the first column there shall be substituted the words set out in the Schedule to this Order.

5. This Order may be cited as the Import Duties (General Ad Valorem Duty Reduction) Order, 1952, and shall come into operation on the 26th day of May, nineteen hundred and fifty-two.

Dated this 20th day of May, 1952.

Dennis Vosper,
Edward Heath,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

SCHEDULE

Wood and timber of coniferous species, in the round or hewn or square sawn but not further prepared or manufactured (except boxboards).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note does not form part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order alters the general ad valorem duty of 10 per cent. chargeable under the Import Duties Act, 1932, on railway sleepers and sleeper blocks imported in the form of square-sawn timber of coniferous species, not further prepared or manufactured, to 8s. per standard of 165 cubic feet.

1952 No. 1922

The Import Duties (General Ad Valorem Duty Reduction) (No. 2) Order, 1952

Made - - - -	4th November, 1952
Laid before the House of Commons	6th November, 1952
Coming into Operation	10th November, 1952

Whereas, having regard to the terms of a General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade concluded at Geneva in the year nineteen hundred and forty-seven to which His late Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and the Government of certain other countries were parties, it appears to the Treasury, on the recommendation of the Board of Trade, to be expedient for the directions given by this Order to have effect:

And whereas, as regards Article 2 of this Order, the Treasury have consulted the appropriate department:

Now therefore, the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by virtue of the powers conferred on them by section fourteen of the Finance Act 1933(a), and by subsection (5) of section nineteen of the Import Duties Act, 1932(b), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following Order:—

1. Any general ad valorem duty chargeable on goods (wherever grown, produced or manufactured) of the following class or description, that is to say:—

milo starch of a value exceeding 10s. per cwt.,

shall be charged at the following reduced rate, namely, seven and a half per cent. of the value of the goods or 1s. per cwt., whichever is the greater.

2. Accordingly the Import Duties (Consolidation) Order, 1949(c), shall have effect as if in the Table of Duties set out in the Second Schedule to that Order there were substituted, in paragraph (8) of Group XIV, for the words "Maize starch" the words "Maize and milo starches".

3. This Order may be cited as the Import Duties (General Ad Valorem Duty Reduction) (No. 2) Order, 1952.

4. This Order shall come into operation on the tenth day of November, nineteen hundred and fifty-two.

Dated this 4th day of November, 1952.

Dennis Vosper,
Edward Heath,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note does not form part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order reduces the rate of duty on milo starch of a value exceeding 10s. 0d. per cwt., chargeable under the Import Duties Act, 1932, from 10 per cent. ad valorem to 7½ per cent. ad valorem or 1s. per cwt., whichever is the greater.
