1959 No. 178

The Import Duties (Process) (No. 1) Order, 1959

Made - - - -	30*th January*, 1959
Laid before the House of Commons	3*rd February*, 1959
Coming into Operation	4*th February*, 1959

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by virtue of the powers conferred on them by subsection (5) of section eight of the Import Duties Act, 1958(a), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, on the recommendation of the Board of Trade hereby make the following Order:—

1.—(1) Where there are imported into the United Kingdom any such goods classifiable under heading No. 76.04 (aluminium foil) of the Customs Tariff, 1959, as are referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article, being goods which—

(a) have been previously exported from the United Kingdom; and

(b) after being so exported have undergone outside the United Kingdom a process of lamination;

then subsection (5) of section eight of the Import Duties Act, 1958, shall not have effect so as to exclude subsections (1) to (4) of that section by reason only of any difference attributable to that process between the rate of import duty under heading No. 76.04 and that applicable to the like goods referred to in subsection (2) of that section.

(2) The goods referred to in the foregoing paragraph are sheets consisting of a layer or layers of plastic sheeting of sub-heading No. 39.01(D)(2) of the Customs Tariff, 1959, with a layer or layers either of such plastic sheeting coated by spraying with aluminium or of aluminium foil.

(3) Where subsections (1) to (4) of section eight of the Import Duties Act, 1958, would not apply but for this Article, any reduction under that section of the import duty chargeable on the imported goods shall be calculated as if the like goods referred to in subsection (2) of that section were chargeable with the rate of duty applicable to the imported goods under heading No. 76.04.

2.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Import Duties (Process) (No. 1) Order, 1959.

(2) This Order shall come into operation on the fourth day of February, nineteen hundred and fifty-nine.

Dated this thirtieth day of January, 1959.

Michael Hughes-Young,
Græme Finlay,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

(a) 6 & 7 Eliz. 2. c. 6.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order provides for the continuance under the Import Duties Act, 1958, of the substance of arrangements whereby certain plastic sheeting sent abroad for lamination is, on its return, chargeable with customs duty in respect of the value of the lamination process only.

1959 No. 2026

The Goods for Exhibition (Temporary Importation) Regulations, 1959

Made - - - -	1*st December*, 1959
Laid before Parliament	8*th December*, 1959
Coming into Operation	1*st January*, 1960

The Commissioners of Customs and Excise, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by section forty of the Customs and Excise Act, 1952(a), hereby make the following Regulations:—

1. If any goods are imported into the United Kingdom other than the Isle of Man and the importer satisfies the Commissioners that the goods

(A) are owned abroad,

(B) are supplied free of charge for the purpose of being displayed at, or used in connection with the organisation or running of,

(i) any approved trade exhibition, or

(ii) any approved exhibition or approved meeting which is primarily organised—

(a) for the benefit of a charitable body recognised as such by the Commissioners, to the funds of which body any profits accruing from such exhibition or meeting will be paid, or

(b) to promote any branch of learning, art, craft, sport, or other educational or cultural activity in the United Kingdom, or

(c) to promote international friendship by disseminating knowledge of the culture and customs of countries or communities outside the United Kingdom, or

(iii) any approved meeting of representatives of any international organisation or international group of organisations, or

(iv) any approved representative meeting held on the occasion of national or international celebrations, for which the goods are lent free of charge as a token of international friendship,

(C) are intended to be re-exported within the time limit specified in Regulation 5 (if not otherwise disposed of to the satisfaction of the Commissioners), and
