EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order makes various amendments and additions to the drawbacks of import duty allowable under previous Orders.

Article 1 provides for the allowance of a new drawback of import duty paid on certain waxed paper cartons used for the exportation of syrup.

Article 2 alters the rates of drawback on leather of certain descriptions used in the manufacture of exported boots, shoes etc. and of certain other exported leather goods, and in that connection slightly restricts the descriptions of leather qualifying for drawback.

Article 3 reduces the rate of drawback on fibre hardboard used in the manufacture of exported flush doors, and provides for the allowance of a new drawback on plywood used in the manufacture of such doors.

Article 4 alters the rates of drawback on certain descriptions of paper used in the manufacture of exported paper bags, and in that connection slightly enlarges the descriptions of paper qualifying for drawback. It also provides for the allowance of new drawbacks on certain descriptions of paper used in the manufacture of exported confectionery cases and on pulpboard used in the manufacture of exported plates and trays.

Article 5 reduces the rate of drawback on wooden veneer sheets and sheets for plywood used in the manufacture of exported picking sticks for weaving looms.

Article 6 reduces the rate of drawback on imported sodium chlorate used in the manufacture of exported weed-killer.

EMERGENCY CONTROL OF IMPORTS AND EXPORTS

1959 No. 161

The Export of Goods (Control) Order, 1959

Made - - - - 28*th January*, 1959
Coming into Operation 16*th February*, 1959

The Board of Trade, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by section 1 of the Import, Export and Customs Powers (Defence) Act, 1939(a), hereby order as follows:—

Prohibitions and restrictions on exportation

1. Subject to the provisions of this Order—

(i) goods of a description included in the First Schedule hereto and therein indicated by the letter A are prohibited to be exported from the United Kingdom or shipped as ships' stores;

(ii) goods of a description included in the said Schedule but not therein indicated by the letter A are prohibited to be exported from the United Kingdom to any port or destination other than a port or destination in the Commonwealth, the Republic of Ireland or the United States of America, or to be shipped as ships' stores; and

(iii) goods of a description included in the Second Schedule hereto are prohibited to be exported to any port or destination in Egypt, Israel, Saudi Arabia, Syria or the Yemen.

Exceptions

2. Nothing in Article 1 of this Order shall be taken to prohibit the exportation of—

Licensed exports and permitted ships' stores

(a) any goods under the authority of a licence granted by the Board of Trade, or the shipment of any goods as ships' stores with the permission of the proper officer of Customs and Excise at the port of departure for use on board the ship, provided that all conditions attaching to the said licence or the said permission are complied with;

Samples

(b) trade samples of any goods, if the samples have no saleable value and they are exported as sample packets in compliance with the provisions of the Post Office Acts, and of the Customs Acts, and of any Treasury Warrant or Post Office Regulations for the time being in force, and of any other rules or regulations respecting the transmission of articles by post which may for the time being be in force in the United Kingdom or in the countries or places to which such goods may be addressed;
