(3) This Order shall come into operation on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and fifty-nine.

Dated this twenty-fifth day of November, 1958.

Martin Redmayne,
P. E. O. Bryan,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order provides for the relief from protective duty under the Import Duties Act, 1958, of

(a) news films imported for copying or for televising;

(b) United Nations films and sound recordings; and

(c) certain educational films.

1958 No. 1976

The Import Duty Reliefs (No. 4) Order, 1958

Made - - - -	25*th November*, 1958
Laid before the House of Commons - -	28*th November*, 1958
Coming into Operation	1*st January*, 1959

Whereas it appears to the Treasury expedient that the relief from import duties provided for by this Order should be allowed with a view to conforming with the agreement on the Importation of Educational, Scientific and Cultural Materials drawn up at the Fifth Session of the General Convention of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation and signed on behalf of Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom at Lake Success on the twenty-second day of November, nineteen hundred and fifty:

Now, therefore, the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by virtue of the powers conferred on them by section five of the Import Duties Act, 1958(a), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, on the recommendation of the Board of Trade hereby make the following Order:—

1.—(1) In the case of any goods which are shown to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade to be specially designed for the educational, scientific or cultural advancement of the blind and which on importation are or are to be consigned either—

(a) to a local authority or joint board exercising for the welfare of the blind powers conferred by any of the enactments below mentioned; or

(a) 6 & 7 Eliz. 2. c. 6.

(b) to an organisation appearing to the Board of Trade to have for its sole or principal object or among its principal objects the promotion of the welfare of the blind ;

the Treasury on the recommendation of the Board of Trade may direct that payment shall not be required of any import duty chargeable in respect of the goods.

(2) The enactments above referred to are section twenty-nine of the National Assistance Act, 1948(a), section three of the Disabled Persons (Employment) Act, 1958(b), section fourteen of the Welfare Services Act (Northern Ireland), 1949(c), and any enactment of the Parliament of Northern Ireland amending the said section fourteen or replacing it in whole or in part.

(3) Where import duty is paid on the importation of any goods, and by virtue of a direction subsequently given under this Order payment of the duty is not required, then the duty shall be repaid.

(4) Applications for relief under this Order shall be made to the Board of Trade.

2.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Import Duty Reliefs (No. 4) Order, 1958.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(d), shall apply for the interpretation of this Order as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(3) This Order shall come into operation on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and fifty-nine.

Dated this twenty-fifth day of November, 1958.

Martin Redmayne,
P. E. O. Bryan,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order continues, under the Import Duties Act, 1958, the existing relief from protective duty for goods specially designed for the educational, scientific or cultural advancement of the blind which are consigned to certain organisations or authorities.
