1958 No. 1978

The Import Duty Reliefs (No. 6) Order, 1958

Made - - - -	25th November, 1958
Laid before the House of Commons	28th November, 1958
Coming into Operation	1st January, 1959

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by virtue of the powers conferred on them by section five of the Import Duties Act, 1958(a), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, on the recommendation of the Board of Trade hereby make the following Order :—

1. Import duty shall not be chargeable on goods which are imported not for sale, but for use as exhibits or specimens in any gallery or museum under the control of a public authority or university in the United Kingdom approved for the purpose of this Order by the Treasury, or of any other institution or body so approved, and are consigned to the gallery or museum, or to the authority, university, institution or body having control of it.

2.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Import Duty Reliefs (No. 6) Order, 1958.

(2) This Order shall come into operation on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and fifty-nine.

Dated this twenty-fifth day of November, 1958.

Martin Redmayne,
P. E. O. Bryan,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order provides relief from protective duty chargeable under the Import Duties Act, 1958, for goods imported for use as exhibits or specimens in approved galleries or museums, and not imported for sale.

Goods of this kind are at present relieved from duty chargeable under the Import Duties Act, 1932.
