1958 No. 1979

The Import Duty Reliefs (No. 7) Order, 1958

Made - - - -	25th November, 1958
Laid before the House of Commons	28th November, 1958
Coming into Operation	1st January, 1959

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by virtue of the powers conferred on them by section five of the Import Duties Act, 1958(a), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, on the recommendation of the Board of Trade hereby make the following Order :—

1. Tapes, wires, discs or other articles (except exposed cinematograph film) which have been recorded with sound by any means, but which appear to the Commissioners of Customs and Excise not to have been produced in quantity for general sale as so recorded, shall not be chargeable with more import duty than if they had not been used for recording sound.

2.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Import Duty Reliefs (No. 7) Order, 1958.

(2) This Order shall come into operation on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and fifty-nine.

Dated this twenty-fifth day of November, 1958.

Martin Redmayne,
P. E. O. Bryan,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order continues under the Import Duties Act, 1958, the existing provision under which the duty on articles recorded with sound (other than cinematograph film) which have not been produced in quantity for general sale, shall not exceed the duty payable on similar unrecorded articles.
