respectively and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf hereby makes the following Order :—

Citation and Commencement

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Importation of Carnation Cuttings Order, 1956, and shall be read as one with the Importation of Plants Order, 1955(a), (hereinafter called " the principal Order ").

(2) This Order shall come into operation on the 30th day of September, 1956.

Additional Restrictions on the Importation of Carnation Cuttings

2. In addition to the prohibitions and requirements imposed by Articles 6 and 7 of the principal Order, the landing in England and Wales of cuttings of carnation plants is prohibited unless either—

(a) the plants (hereinafter called " the said plants ") from which the cuttings were taken and the plants from which the said plants were immediately derived were tested and were found to be free from bacterial wilts caused by Pseudomonas caryophylli, Erwinia sp. or other similar organisms, or

(b) bacterial wilts caused by Pseudomonas caryophylli, Erwinia sp. or other similar organisms are not known to be established anywhere in the country in which the said plants were grown.

In witness whereof the Official Seal of the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food is hereunto affixed this 24th day of September, nineteen hundred and fifty-six.

(L.S.)

D. Heathcoat Amory,
Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order prohibits the importation of carnation cuttings into England or Wales unless they have been derived from stock found to be free from bacterial wilts or unless those diseases are not known to be established in the country of origin. These requirements are additional to those imposed by the Importation of Plants Order, 1955.
