(f) 14 & 15 Geo. 6. c. 25.

and continued in force by the Supplies and Services (Continuance) Order, 1950(a), hereby order as follows:—

1.—(1) No person shall sell any imported plywood of a description for which a basis price is specified in Part II of the First Schedule to this Order at a price exceeding the appropriate maximum price computed in accordance with the provisions of Part I of that Schedule.

(2) No seller shall charge in relation to the sale of any such imported plywood, in addition to the price paid or payable therefor, any amount not authorized by the provisions set out in the Second Schedule to this Order.

(3) The seller of any such imported plywood shall, if the buyer so requires, furnish to the buyer a statement in writing (whether in an invoice or otherwise) showing in relation to the provisions of this Order how the price is computed and giving sufficient particulars to enable the buyer to verify that the price is in conformity with the provisions of this Order.

2. Nothing in this Order shall apply to the sale of plywood by a plywood merchant to any other person if the value of the plywood sold by that plywood merchant to that other person in the calendar month in which such sale takes place has not already exceeded or would not thereby exceed £2.

3. In any proceedings in respect of the sale of any plywood in alleged contravention of Article 1 of this Order, it shall be a defence for the defendant to prove that the plywood was neither delivered nor intended to be delivered to any person in the United Kingdom, other than a person under an obligation to carry the plywood on behalf of the buyer thereof to a place outside the United Kingdom.

4. Nothing in this Order shall prohibit the doing of anything under the authority of a licence granted by the Board of Trade hereunder, and in accordance with any condition attached thereto.

5. In this Order—

"imported plywood" means plywood which has been imported into the United Kingdom having been manufactured elsewhere;

"plywood" means any of the materials commonly known in the timber trade as plywood (including battenboard, blockboard and laminboard) but does not include used plywood;

"plywood merchant" means any person who carries on any undertaking which involves the sale of plywood.

6. The Plywood Prices (No. 2) Order, 1949(b), the Plywood Prices (Amendment) Order, 1950(c), the Plywood Prices (Amendment No. 2) Order, 1950(d), and the Plywood Prices (Amendment No. 3) Order, 1950(e), are hereby revoked.

7. This Order may be cited as the Imported Plywood Prices Order, 1951 and shall come into operation on the 22nd day of June, 1951.

Dated this 15th day of June, 1951.

Hervey Rhodes,
Parliamentary Secretary to the Board of Trade.

FIRST SCHEDULE

PART I

1. The maximum price for any plywood of a description for which a basis price is specified in Division A of Part II of this Schedule, which is loaded at the expense of the seller on to a vehicle or vessel at the place where the plywood is lying, shall be the aggregate of—

(a) the appropriate basis price so specified;

(b) in the case of plywood lying at a place other than a Board of Trade store, a carriage charge calculated as follows:—

Distance from the Board of Trade store in which the plywood has been stored to the place where the plywood is lying—	Charge per mm. thickness per 100 sq. ft.
Not more than 60 miles	1½
More than 60 miles but not more than 125 miles	2
More than 125 miles but not more than 200 miles	3
More than 200 miles	4;

(c) in the case of plywood specified in the buyer's order which

(i) has a value, calculated at the basis price, of less than £15, and

(ii) differs from the other plywood (if any) separately specified in that order in respect of species of wood, quality and thickness, a sum equal to 20 per cent. of the value so calculated:

Provided that the aggregate of the addendum under this head and the value at the basis price to which it is added shall not exceed £15.

2. The maximum price of any plywood offcuts for which a basis price is specified in Division B of Part II of this Schedule, which are loaded as aforesaid, shall be the appropriate basis price so specified.

3. The maximum price for any plywood, or plywood offcuts not loaded as aforesaid shall be the amount provided in paragraph 1 or 2 of this Part, as the case may be, less the reasonable cost which the buyer has incurred or may expect to incur of loading the material on to a vehicle or vessel at the place where the material is lying.

4. The prices in Part II of this Schedule include the packing (if any) of imported plywood.

5. In the Tables in Part II of this Schedule the headings and the code letters and figures indicating quality have the meaning attached to them by the custom of the timber trade, and the first dimension given is that parallel to the grain.

6. The prices in Division A of Part II of this Schedule are per 100 square feet.

DIVISION B

PLYWOOD OFFCUTS

On the sale of plywood offcuts which are of a species of wood, quality and thickness specified in Division A of this Part, the basis price shall be—

(a) where those offcuts are rectangular in shape and are sold sorted according to species of wood, thickness and length or width, the percentage indicated below of the lowest basis price specified in Division A of this Part for that species of wood and thickness:—

Length or Width (whichever is the less)	Percentage of basis price
over 12 in. but under 24 in.	90
over 6 in. but not over 12 in.	75
not over 6 in.	50; or

(b) in any other case, £30 per ton.

SECOND SCHEDULE

The following amounts may be charged for the respective services set out below if agreed between the buyer and the seller and if an invoice is given for the plywood to which the amount relates stating separately each such amount and the service to which it relates:—

Services	Amounts
(1) The seller to provide transport beyond the place at which the plywood is loaded.	An amount which is reasonable in relation to the cost incurred by the seller in respect of that transport.
(2) The seller to give credit to the buyer beyond the date of delivery.	Interest from the date of delivery or such later date as may be agreed, at a rate not exceeding 6 per centum per annum.
(3) The seller to subject the plywood to any processing or conversion.	An amount which is reasonable in relation to the cost incurred by the seller in respect of that processing or conversion.
(4) The seller to provide re-packing.	An amount which is reasonable in relation to the cost incurred by the seller in providing that re-packing.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order supersedes the Plywood Prices (No. 2) Order, 1949, and its amending Orders. The principal changes are as follows:—

(a) maximum prices are no longer provided either for home-manufactured plywood or for any imported plywood except Russian, Finnish, Swedish, Norwegian and North American;

(b) the maximum prices for the plywoods to which this Order applies are increased.
