PENSION

The Increase of Pensions (Calculation of Income) (Supplemental) Regulations, 1950

1950 No. 34

Made - - - -	7th January, 1950
Laid before Parliament	9th January, 1950
Coming into Operation	10th January, 1950

The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of Their powers under subsection (1) of section three of the Pensions (Increase) Act, 1944(a), and of all other powers enabling Them in that behalf, hereby make the following Regulations:—

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Increase of Pensions (Calculation of Income) (Supplemental) Regulations, 1950, and these Regulations and the Increase of Pensions (Calculation of Income) Regulations, 1944

(a) 7 & 8 Geo. 6. c. 21.

and 1947(a), may be cited together as the Increase of Pensions (Calculation of Income) Regulations, 1944 to 1950.

(2) These Regulations shall be construed as one with the Increase of Pensions (Calculation of Income) Regulations, 1944 and 1947.

(3) Any reference in these Regulations to the provisions of any enactment shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be construed as a reference to those provisions as amended or re-enacted by or under any subsequent enactment.

(4) The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), shall apply to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2. Where—

(i) a pensioner is resident in any place outside the scheduled territories, and

(ii) any part of his income accrues to him in a foreign currency,

the value of that part of his income shall be calculated for the purposes of section one of the Pensions (Increase) Act, 1944, and the Second Schedule thereto, at such rate of exchange between sterling and the foreign currency in which it accrued as the Treasury may from time to time direct.

3. In these Regulations—

(i) references to the income of a pensioner shall, in the case of a married pensioner, include references to the income of the husband or wife of that pensioner;

(ii) the expression "scheduled territories" has the meaning assigned to it by section one of the Exchange Control Act, 1947(c), that is to say, the territories specified in the First Schedule (as from time to time amended by order of the Treasury) to that Act;

(iii) the expression "foreign currency" means the currency of any country outside the scheduled territories.

4. These Regulations shall come into force on the 10th day of January, 1950.

Dated this 7th day of January, 1950.

Wm. Hannan,
R. J. Taylor,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of
His Majesty's Treasury.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

Under the Pensions (Increase) Act, 1944, a pensioner's income apart from his pension is to be taken into account in assessing his claim to pensions increase. If this income increases, his entitlement to pensions increase may be reduced or cancelled altogether.

(a) S.R. & O. 1944 (No. 695) I, p. 649 and S.R. & O. 1947 (No. 1929) I, p. 1556.
(b) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.
(c) 10 & 11 Geo. 6. c. 14.

Where pensioners are resident in countries in which sterling now has a reduced exchange value, their local income assumes a notionally enhanced value in terms of sterling; it is, however, of no additional value to the pensioner. These Regulations are designed to prevent the reduction or exclusion of a claim to pensions increase on this account, by enabling the Treasury to direct that, for the purpose of assessing the pensioner's means, his income in local currency is to be valued on the basis of the exchange rate in force before the recent alteration.
