CHAPTER 7.

An Act to restrict the meaning of the expression landlord in subsection (3) of section one of the Increase of Rent and Mortgage Interest (War Restrictions) Act, 1915.

[2nd May 1918.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Restriction of meaning of landlord in 5 & 6 Geo. 5. c. 97. s. 1 (3).

1. Subsection (3) of section one of the Increase of Rent and Mortgage Interest (War Restrictions) Act, 1915, shall have effect as if at the end thereof the following provision was inserted:—

"For the purposes of this subsection the expression "landlord" shall not include any person who since the thirtieth day of September nineteen hundred and seventeen has become landlord by the acquisition of the dwelling-house or any interest therein otherwise than by the devolution thereof to him under a settlement made before the said date, or under a testamentary disposition or an intestacy," and the provisions of the said subsection with respect to orders made but not executed before the passing of that Act, shall apply to orders made but not executed before the passing of this Act, as if this Act had been substituted for that Act in the said subsection:

Provided that this enactment shall not apply in any case where the court is satisfied by certificate given by or on behalf of the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries (or as regards premises in Scotland by the Board of Agriculture for Scotland, or in Ireland the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland) that the premises in question are required for the occupation of a person engaged or employed in agricultural work of urgent national importance.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the Increase of Rent, &c. (Amendment) Act, 1918.

CHAPTER 8.

An Act to amend the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1906, with respect to persons suffering injury while working under an illegal contract. [16th May 1918.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Power of arbitrator to allow claim for compensation in certain cases of illegal employment. 6 Edw. 7. c. 58.

1. If on any proceedings for the recovery under the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1906, of compensation for an injury, it appears to the arbitrator that the contract of service or apprenticeship under which the injured person was working at the time when the accident causing the injury happened was illegal, the arbitrator may, if, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, he thinks it proper so to do, deal with the matter as if the injured person had at the time aforesaid been a person working under a valid contract of service or apprenticeship.

In this section the expression "arbitrator" includes any person by whom a claim for compensation is to be settled in accordance with the provisions of the Second Schedule to the said Act

Short title and construction.

2. This Act may be cited as the Workmen's Compensation (Illegal Employment) Act, 1918, and shall be construed as one with the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1906.
