2. The scheme as generally in force shall, as from the expiration of the period of one month beginning with the date of the making of the Order, apply to every independent waterway undertaking to which section 3 of the Act applies as it applies to the Commission.

Given under the Official Seal of the Minister of Transport and Civil Aviation this 29th day of October, 1958.

(L.S.) R. R. Goodison.
An Under Secretary of the Ministry of Transport and Civil Aviation.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The British Transport Commission (Inland Waterways) Charges Scheme, 1958, authorises the Commission to make such charges as may be reasonable in relation to the use of their inland waterways. This Order applies the said Scheme to all independent statutory waterway undertakings any of the charges of which are authorised under a Provisional Order, made and confirmed by Parliament, in pursuance of sections twenty-four and thirty-six of the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888, so as to enable such undertakings, in so far as they are so authorised to make charges, likewise to levy such charges as may be reasonable in respect of the use of their waterways.
