1. CONSEQUENTIAL PROVISION

The India (Consequential Provision) Order, 1949

1949 No. 2411

Made - - - -	21*st December,* 1949
Laid before Parliament	23*rd December,* 1949
Coming into Operation	1*st January,* 1950

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of December, 1949

Present,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

His Majesty, in pursuance of subsection (3) of section one of the India (Consequential Provision) Act, 1949(a), and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows :—

1. If a person holding at the date of the coming into operation of this Order the office of a Member of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council by virtue of section one of the Appellate Jurisdiction Act, 1929(b), retires from that office before attaining the age of seventy-two years, and His Majesty is satisfied that his retirement is attributable to the cesser of appeals to His Majesty in Council from courts in India, subsection (6) of that section shall have effect in relation to him with the substitution for the reference therein to retirement on attaining the age of seventy-two years of a reference to retirement on or after the date of the coming into operation of this Order.

2.—(1) In exercising the power conferred by subsection (1) of the said section one to fill a vacancy in the office of a person appointed a Member of the Judicial Committee under that section His Majesty may, in lieu of appointing a person under the age of seventy-two years, appoint for a period limited in accordance with the succeeding paragraph a person who, having held office under that section, has retired therefrom.

(2) An appointment under the said section one as modified by the preceding paragraph shall be for a period ending not later than the expiration of two years from the date of the coming into operation of this Order, and in relation to a person so appointed subsection (3) of that section shall have effect with the substitution of a reference to retirement at the expiration of the period for which he was appointed for the reference therein to retirement on attaining the age of seventy-two years.

3. This Order may be cited as the India (Consequential Provision) Order, 1949, and shall come into operation on the first day of January, 1950.
