Imposition of the Levy

3.—(1) The levy to be imposed by the Board on employers in respect of the third levy period and of the fourth levy period respectively shall be assessed in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

(2) The levy shall be assessed by the Board separately in respect of each air transport and travel establishment of an employer, not being an Air Corporation, the British Airports Authority or an employer who is exempted from the levy by virtue of paragraph (7) of this Article, but in agreement with the employer one assessment may be made in respect of any number of such establishments in which case those establishments shall be deemed for the purposes of that assessment to constitute one establishment.

(3) The levy assessed in respect of an air transport and travel establishment of an employer shall, subject to the provisions of this Article, be an amount equal to 2·0 per cent. (or in the case of an establishment of a British air carrier 3·8 per cent.) of the sum of the emoluments of all the persons employed by the employer at or from that establishment in the relevant base period.

(4) In the case of an air transport and travel establishment that ceases to carry on business in a relevant levy period the said sum of emoluments mentioned in the last foregoing paragraph shall be reduced in the same proportion as the number of days between the commencement of that levy period and the date of cessation of business (both dates inclusive) bears to the number of days in the said period.

(5) The levy shall be assessed by the Board in respect of each Air Corporation and of the British Airports Authority and shall, subject to the provisions of this Article, be an amount equal to 3·8 per cent. in the case of an Air Corporation and 2·0 per cent. in the case of the said Authority of the sum of the emoluments of all the persons employed by the Corporation or Authority, as the case may be, at or from its establishment or establishments in the relevant base period.

(6) For the purposes of this Article, no regard shall be had to any person employed as follows :—

(a) by a local authority in—

(i) any activities to which paragraph 1(h) or 1(i) of the Schedule to the industrial training order applies, not being activities mentioned in head (ii) or head (iv) of paragraph 3(q) thereof ; or

(ii) any operations (being certain building work or civil engineering work) specified in paragraph 2(c)(i) of that Schedule ;

(b) as a member of the crew of an aircraft that is operated by an employer having his sole or principal place of business outside Great Britain ;

(c) wholly in agriculture ;

(d) wholly in the supply of food or drink for immediate consumption, except where such person is a member of the crew of an aircraft ; or

(a) 1889 c. 63.

(e) wholly at or from a travel agency establishment in the third bas period.

(7) There shall be exempted from the levy to be imposed in respect of th third levy period an employer in whose case the principal activities of the ai transport and travel industry in the third base period were limited to th business of a travel agent or of providing packaged tours.

Assessment Notices

4.—(1) The Board shall serve an assessment notice on every employe assessed to the levy, but one notice may comprise two or more assessments

(2) An assessment notice shall state the amount (rounded down, wher necessary, to the nearest £1) of the levy payable by the person assessed thereto and where the notice comprises two or more assessments the said amount shall before any such rounding down, be equal to the total amount of the lev assessed by the Board under Article 3 of this Order in respect of each estab lishment included in the notice.

(3) An assessment notice shall state the Board's address for the service of a notice of appeal or of an application for an extension of time for appealing

(4) An assessment notice may be served on the person assessed to the lev either by delivering it to him personally or by leaving it, or sending it to hin by post, at his last known address or place of business in the United Kingdon or, if that person is a corporation, by leaving it, or sending it by post to th corporation, at such address or place of business or at its registered or principa office.

Payment of the Levy

5.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Article and of Articles 6 and 7, th amount of the levy payable under an assessment notice served by the Boar shall be payable to the Board in two instalments determined in accordanc with the provisions of the next following paragraph, and the first instalmen shall be due one month after the date of the assessment notice and the secon instalment one month after the date (not being earlier than five months afte the date of the assessment notice) of a notice requiring payment of that instal ment, which notice shall be served by the Board on the person assessed to th levy in the same manner as an assessment notice.

(2) The first of the said instalments shall be equal to 0·3 per cent. of the sun of emoluments by reference to which the amount of the said levy has bee assessed in accordance with the provisions of Article 3 of this Order, and th second instalment shall be equal to the balance of the amount payable unde the assessment notice.

(3) The amount of an instalment mentioned in the last foregoing paragraph may be rounded up or down by the Board to a convenient figure, but so tha the aggregate amount of both instalments shall be equal to the amount of th levy stated in the assessment notice in accordance with Article 4(2) of thi Order.

(4) An instalment of an assessment shall not be recoverable by the Boar until there has expired the time allowed for appealing against the assessmen by Article 7(1) of this Order and any further period or periods of time tha the Board or an appeal tribunal may have allowed for appealing under para graph (2) or (3) of that Article or, where an appeal is brought, until the appea is decided or withdrawn.

Withdrawal of Assessment

6.—(1) The Board may, by a notice served on the person assessed to the levy in the same manner as an assessment notice, withdraw an assessment if that person has appealed against that assessment under the provisions of Article 7 of this Order and the appeal has not been entered in the Register of Appeals kept under the appropriate Regulations specified in paragraph (5) of that Article.

(2) The withdrawal of an assessment shall be without prejudice—

(a) to the power of the Board to serve a further assessment notice in respect of any establishment or, as the case may be, persons to which that assessment related and, where the withdrawal is made by reason of the fact that an establishment has ceased to carry on business in the relevant levy period, the said notice may provide that the whole amount payable thereunder in respect of the establishment shall be due one month after the date of the notice ; or

(b) to any other assessment included in the original assessment notice, and such notice shall thereupon have effect as if any assessment withdrawn by the Board had not been included therein.

Appeals

7.—(1) A person assessed to the levy may appeal to an appeal tribunal against the assessment within one month from the date of the service of the assessment notice or within any further period or periods of time that may be allowed by the Board or an appeal tribunal under the following provisions of this Article.

(2) The Board by notice may for good cause allow a person assessed to the levy to appeal to an appeal tribunal against the assessment at any time within the period of four months from the date of the service of the assessment notice or within such further period or periods as the Board may allow before such time as may then be limited for appealing has expired.

(3) If the Board shall not allow an application for extension of time for appealing, an appeal tribunal shall upon application made to the tribunal by the person assessed to the levy have the like powers as the Board under the last foregoing paragraph.

(4) In the case of an establishment that ceases to carry on business in a relevant levy period on any day after the date of the service of an assessment notice that applies in respect of that period, the foregoing provisions of this Article shall have effect as if for the period of four months from the date of the service of the assessment notice mentioned in paragraph (2) of this Article there were substituted the period of six months from the date of the cessation of business.

(5) An appeal or an application to an appeal tribunal under this Article shall be made in accordance with the Industrial Tribunals (England and Wales) Regulations 1965(a) as amended by the Industrial Tribunals (England and Wales) (Amendment) Regulations 1967(b) except where the assessment relates to an establishment that is wholly in Scotland in which case the appeal or application shall be made in accordance with the Industrial Tribunals (Scotland) Regulations 1965(c) as amended by the Industrial Tribunals (Scotland) (Amendment) Regulations 1967(d).
