Imposition and Assessment of the Levy for the First Levy Period

2.—(1) The levy to be imposed on employers shall be assessed in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

(2) The levy shall be assessed by the Board separately in respect of each distributive establishment of an employer, but in agreement with the employer one assessment may be made in respect of any number of such establishments, in which case those establishments shall be deemed for the purposes of that assessment to constitute one establishment.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Article the amount of the levy imposed on an employer in respect of a distributive establishment shall be equal to 0·75 per centum of the emoluments of all persons employed or deemed to have been so employed under the provisions of paragraph (4) by the employer at or from that establishment in the first base period.

(4) In the case where a distributive establishment is taken over (whether directly or indirectly) by an employer in succession to, or jointly with, another person, a person employed at any time in the first base period at or from the establishment shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Order, to have been so employed by the employer carrying on the said establishment on the day upon which this Order comes into operation.

(5) The amount of the levy imposed in respect of a distributive establishment that ceases to carry on business in the first levy period shall be in the same proportion to the amount that would otherwise be due under the foregoing provisions of this Article as the number of days between the commencement of the said levy period and the date of cessation of business (both dates inclusive) bears to the number of days in the said levy period.

(6) In reckoning the amount of the emoluments for the purposes of this Article no regard shall be had to the emoluments of:—

(2) The amount payable under an assessment notice shall be rounded down to the nearest £1.

(3) An assessment notice shall state the Board's address for the service of a notice of appeal or of an application for an extension of time for appealing.

Payment of the Levy

4.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Article and of Articles 5 and 6 the amount of the levy payable under an assessment notice served by the Board shall be payable to the Board in two instalments the first of which equal to 40 per centum of the total amount shall be due on 1st December 1970 and the second equal to 60 per centum of the total amount shall be due on 1st December 1971.

(2) An instalment of an assessment shall not be recoverable by the Board until there has expired the time allowed for appealing against the assessment by Article 6(1) of this Order and any further period or periods of time that the Board or an appeal tribunal may have allowed for appealing under Article 6(2) or (3), or, where an appeal is brought, until the appeal is decided or withdrawn.

Withdrawal of Assessment

5.—(1) The Board may, by a notice served on the person assessed to the levy in the same manner as an assessment notice, withdraw an assessment if that person has appealed against that assessment under the provisions of Article 6 of this Order and the appeal has not been entered in the Register of Appeals kept under the regulations specified in Article 6(5).

(2) The withdrawal of an assessment shall be without prejudice to the power of the Board to serve a further assessment notice in respect of any establishment to which that assessment related and where the withdrawal is made by reason of the fact that an establishment has ceased to carry on business in the first levy period, the said notice may provide that the whole amount payable thereunder shall be due one month after the date of the notice.

Appeals

6.—(1) A person assessed to the levy may appeal to an appeal tribunal against the assessment within one month from the date of the service of the assessment notice or within any further period or periods of time that may be allowed by the Board or an appeal tribunal under the following provisions of this Article.

(2) The Board for good cause may, by notice, extend the time within which an appeal may be made by such further period or periods as the Board may allow in any case where an application for such extension is made within the period of four months from the date of the service of the relevant notice of assessment or, where an extension has already been granted, before the period of such extension has expired.

(3) If the Board shall not allow an application for extension of time for appealing an appeal tribunal shall, upon application to the tribunal by the person assessed to the levy within the period of fourteen days from the date of receipt of the decision of the Board refusing such an application have the like powers of the Board under paragraph (2).

(4) In the case of an establishment that ceases to carry on business in the first levy period on any day after the date of the service of the relevant assessment notice the foregoing provisions of this Article shall have effect as if for the period of four months from the date of the service of the assessment notice mentioned in paragraph (2) there were substituted the period of six months from the date of the cessation of business.

(5) An appeal or an application to an appeal tribunal under this Article shall be made in accordance with the Industrial Tribunals Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1965(d).

7.—(1) Upon the discharge by a person assessed to the levy of his liability under an assessment the Board shall if so requested issue to him a certificate to that effect.

(2) The production in any proceedings of a document purporting to be certified by the Secretary of the Board or any other person, being a member, or officer of the Board authorised to act in that behalf, to be a true copy of an assessment or other notice issued by the Board or purporting to be a certificate such as is mentioned in paragraph (1) shall, unless the contrary is proved, be sufficient evidence of the document and of the facts stated therein.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Ministry of Health and Social Services for Northern Ireland this 5th day of August 1970.

Assistant Secretary.
