Made - - -	7th March 1972
Laid before Parliament	16*th March* 1972
Coming into Operation	10*th April* 1972

The Secretary of State after approving proposals submitted by the Food, Drink and Tobacco Industry Training Board for the imposition of a further levy on employers in the food, drink and tobacco industry and in exercise of his powers under section 4 of the Industrial Training Act 1964(a) and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf hereby makes the following Order:—

Title and commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the Industrial Training Levy (Food, Drink and Tobacco) Order 1972 and shall come into operation on 10th April 1972.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In this Order unless the context otherwise requires:—

(a) "agriculture" has the same meaning as in section 109(3) of the Agriculture Act 1947(b) or, in relation to Scotland, as in section 86(3) of the Agriculture (Scotland) Act 1948(c);

(b) "an appeal tribunal" means an industrial tribunal established under section 12 of the Industrial Training Act 1964;

(c) "assessment" means an assessment of an employer to the levy;

(d) "the Board" means the Food, Drink and Tobacco Industry Training Board;

(e) "business" means any activities of industry or commerce;

(f) "charity" has the same meaning as in section 360 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1970(d);

(g) "emoluments" means all emoluments assessable to income tax under Schedule E (other than pensions), being emoluments from which tax under that Schedule is deductible, whether or not tax in fact falls to be deducted from any particular payment thereof;

(h) "employer" means a person who is an employer in the food, drink and tobacco industry at any time in the fourth levy period;

(a) 1964 c. 16.
(b) 1947 c. 48.
(c) 1948 c. 45.
(d) 1970 c. 10.

(i) "food, drink and tobacco establishment" means an establishment in Great Britain engaged in the fourth base period wholly or mainly in the food, drink and tobacco industry for a total of twenty-seven or more weeks or, being an establishment that commenced to carry on business in the fourth base period, for a total number of weeks exceeding one half of the number of weeks in the part of the said period commencing with the day on which business was commenced and ending on the last day thereof;

(j) "the food, drink and tobacco industry" means any one or more of the activities which, subject to the provisions of paragraph 2 of the Schedule to the industrial training order, are specified in paragraph 1 of that Schedule as the activities of the food, drink and tobacco industry;

(k) "the fourth base period" means the period of twelve months that commenced on 6th April 1971;

(l) "the fourth levy period" means the period commencing with the day upon which this Order comes into operation and ending on 5th April 1973;

(m) "the industrial training order" means the Industrial Training (Food, Drink and Tobacco Board) Order 1971(a);

(n) "the levy" means the levy imposed by the Board in respect of the fourth levy period;

(o) "notice" means a notice in writing;

(p) other expressions have the same meanings as in the industrial training order.

(2) In reckoning the amount of emoluments for the purposes of this Order no regard shall be had to the emoluments of any person employed as follows:—

(a) by a local authority;

(b) by a milk marketing board in the provision of—

(i) services of artificial insemination for livestock at a centre providing such services; or

(ii) any services in respect of milk recording;

(c) wholly in agriculture;

(d) as a member of the crew of an aircraft, as the master or a member of the crew of a ship, or, in the case of a person employed as a seaman, in or about a ship in port by the owner or charterer thereof on work of a kind ordinarily done by a seaman on a ship while it is in port;

(e) wholly as a registered dock worker in dock work; or

(f) wholly in the supply (including any preparation thereof by the person engaged in such supply) of food or drink to persons, being a supply—

(i) for immediate consumption;

(ii) of hot fried fish or hot chipped potatoes; or

(iii) by means of an automatic vending machine at or in connection with an hotel, restaurant, café, snack bar, canteen, mess room or similar place of refreshment.

(a) S.I. 1971/648 (1971 I, p. 1709).

(3) Any reference in this Order to persons employed at or from a food, drink and tobacco establishment shall in any case where the employer is a company be construed as including a reference to any director of the company (or any person occupying the position of director by whatever name he was called) who was, at the material time, in receipt of a salary from the company.

(4) In the case where a food, drink and tobacco establishment is taken over (whether directly or indirectly) by an employer in succession to, or jointly with, another person, a person employed at any time in the fourth base period at or from the establishment shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Order, to have been so employed by the employer carrying on the said establishment on the day upon which this Order comes into operation, and any reference in this Order to persons employed by an employer at or from a food, drink and tobacco establishment in the fourth base period shall be construed accordingly.

(5) Any reference in this Order to an establishment that commences to carry on business or that ceases to carry on business shall not be taken to apply where the location of the establishment is changed but its business is continued wholly or mainly at or from the new location, or where the suspension of activities is of a temporary or seasonal nature.

(6) The Interpretation Act 1889(a) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Imposition of the levy

3.—(1) The levy to be imposed by the Board on employers in respect of the fourth levy period shall be assessed in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

(2) The levy shall be assessed by the Board separately in respect of each food, drink and tobacco establishment of an employer (not being an employer who is exempt from the levy by virtue of paragraph (5) of this Article), but in agreement with the employer one assessment may be made in respect of any number of such establishments, in which case those establishments shall be deemed for the purposes of that assessment to constitute one establishment.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Order, the levy assessed in respect of a food, drink and tobacco establishment of an employer shall be an amount equal to 0·7 per cent. of the sum of the emoluments of all the persons employed by the employer at or from that establishment in the fourth base period.

(4) The amount of the levy imposed in respect of a food, drink and tobacco establishment that ceases to carry on business in the fourth levy period shall be in the same proportion to the amount that would otherwise be due under paragraph (3) of this Article as the number of days between the commencement of the said levy period and the date of cessation of business (both dates inclusive) bears to the number of days in the said levy period.

(a) 1889 c. 63.

(5) There shall be exempt from the levy

(a) an employer in whose case the sum of the emoluments of all the persons employed by him in the fourth base period at or from the food, drink and tobacco establishment or establishments of the employer (including any persons employed in that period at or from a food, drink and tobacco establishment by an associated company of the employer) is less than £30,000;

(b) a charity.

Assessment notices

4.—(1) The Board shall serve an assessment notice on every employer assessed to the levy, but one notice may comprise two or more assessments.

(2) The amount of any assessment payable under an assessment notice shall be rounded down to the nearest £1.

(3) An assessment notice shall state the Board's address for the service of a notice of appeal or of an application for an extension of time for appealing.

(4) An assessment notice may be served on the person assessed to the levy either by delivering it to him personally or by leaving it, or sending it to him by post, at his last known address or place of business in the United Kingdom or, if that person is a corporation, by leaving it, or sending it by post to the corporation, at such address or place of business or at its registered or principal office.

Payment of the levy

5.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Article and of Articles 6 and 7, the amount of each assessment appearing in an assessment notice served by the Board shall be due and payable to the Board one month after the date of a further notice requiring payment of that amount, which notice shall be served by the Board on the person assessed to the levy in the same manner as an assessment notice.

(2) The amount of an assessment shall not be recoverable by the Board until there has expired the time allowed for appealing against the assessment by Article 7(1) of this Order and any further period or periods of time that the Board or an appeal tribunal may have allowed for appealing under paragraph (2) or (3) of that Article or, where an appeal is brought, until the appeal is decided or withdrawn.

Withdrawal of assessment

6.—(1) The Board may, by a notice served on the person assessed to the levy in the same manner as an assessment notice, withdraw an assessment if that person has appealed against that assessment under the provisions of Article 7 of this Order and the appeal has not been entered in the Register of Appeals kept under the appropriate Regulations specified in paragraph (5) of that Article.

(2) The withdrawal of an assessment shall be without prejudice to the power of the Board to serve a further assessment notice in respect of any establishment to which that assessment related.

Appeals

7.—(1) A person assessed to the levy may appeal to an appeal tribuna against the assessment within one month from the date of the service of th assessment notice or within any further period or periods of time that ma be allowed by the Board or an appeal tribunal under the following pro visions of this Article.

(2) The Board by notice may for good cause allow a person assessed t the levy to appeal to an appeal tribunal against the assessment at any tim within the period of four months from the date of the service of the assess ment notice or within such further period or periods as the Board ma allow before such time as may then be limited for appealing has expired.

(3) If the Board shall not allow an application for extension of time fo appealing, an appeal tribunal shall upon application made to the tribuna by the person assessed to the levy have the like powers as the Board unde the last foregoing paragraph.

(4) In the case of an establishment that ceases to carry on business in th fourth levy period on any day after the date of the service of the relevan assessment notice the foregoing provisions of this Article shall have effec as if for the period of four months from the date of the service of the assess ment notice mentioned in paragraph (2) of this Article there were substitute the period of six months from the date of the cessation of business.

(5) An appeal or an application to an appeal tribunal under this Articl shall be made in accordance with the Industrial Tribunals (England an Wales) Regulations 1965(a) as amended by the Industrial Tribunals (Englan and Wales) (Amendment) Regulations 1967(b) except where the establishmer to which the relevant assessment relates is wholly in Scotland in which cas the appeal or application shall be made in accordance with the Industri Tribunals (Scotland) Regulations 1965(c) as amended by the Industrial Tr bunals (Scotland) (Amendment) Regulations 1967(d).

(6) The powers of an appeal tribunal under paragraph (3) of this Articl may be exercised by the President of the Industrial Tribunals (England an Wales) or by the President of the Industrial Tribunals (Scotland) as the cas may be.

Evidence

8.—(1) Upon the discharge by a person assessed to the levy of his liabili under an assessment the Board shall if so requested issue to him a certifica to that effect.

(2) The production in any proceedings of a document purporting to b certified by the Secretary of the Board to be a true copy of an assessment other notice issued by the Board or purporting to be a certificate such as mentioned in the foregoing paragraph of this Article shall, unless the co trary is proved, be sufficient evidence of the document and of the facts state therein.
