Made - - - -	10*th February* 1966
Laid before Parliament	21*st February* 1966
Coming into Operation	23*rd February* 1966

The Minister of Labour (hereinafter referred to as "the Minister") after consultation with organisations and associations of organisations appearing to be representative respectively of substantial numbers of employers engaging in the activities hereinafter mentioned and of substantial numbers of persons employed in those activities and by virtue of the powers conferred on him by section 1 of, and paragraphs 1 and 7 of the Schedule to, the Industrial Training Act 1964(a) (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf hereby makes the following Order:—

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Industrial Training (Man-made Fibres Producing Industry Board) Order 1966 and shall come into operation on 23rd February 1966.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889(b) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Establishment of Industrial Training Board

2. An industrial training board to be known as the Man-made Fibres Producing Industry Training Board (hereinafter referred to as "the Board") is hereby established to exercise in relation to the activities specified in Schedule 1 to this Order as the activities of the man-made fibres producing industry the functions conferred on industrial training boards by the Act.

The membership and proceedings of the Board

3. The provisions of Schedule 2 to this Order shall have effect in relation to the Board.

10th February 1966.

R. J. Gunter,

Minister of Labour.

SCHEDULE 1

THE MAN-MADE FIBRES PRODUCING INDUSTRY

1. Subject to the provisions of this Schedule, the activities of the man-made fibres producing industry are the carrying out of the following activities in Great Britain:—

(a) the production of man-made fibres;

(a) 1964 c. 16. (b) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

(b) the processes of twisting, doubling, folding, winding, pirning, warping, warp dressing, beaming, sizing, dyeing, finishing, oiling, combing, recombing or bulking man-made fibres, being processes ancillary to the production of man-made fibres and carried out by employers engaged in their production;

(c) any activities being—

(i) related activities incidental or ancillary to principal activities of the man-made fibres producing industry; or

(ii) activities undertaken in the administration, control or direction of one or more establishments engaged wholly or mainly in principal activities of that industry, in related activities incidental or ancillary thereto, or in the administration, control or direction of one or more establishments engaged in such principal or related activities;

and carried out, in either case, by the employer engaged in those principal activities or, where that employer is a company, by the company or by an associated company of the company;

(d) any activities of industry or commerce (other than man-made fibres producing activities) carried out at or from an establishment mainly engaged—

(i) in man-made fibres producing activities; or

(ii) in man-made fibres producing activities and in activities described in the Appendix to this Schedule, but to a greater extent in man-made fibres producing activities than in activities described in that Appendix in relation to any one industry.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Schedule, there shall not be included in the man-made fibres producing industry:—

(a) the activities (other than the production of textile fibres from polyethylene terephthalate) of any establishment engaged—

(i) mainly in activities, not being man-made fibres producing activities or activities described in the Appendix to this Schedule; or

(ii) to a less extent in man-made fibres producing activities than in activities described in that Appendix in relation to any one industry;

(b) the activities of any establishment engaged wholly or mainly in the repair of mechanically propelled vehicles used on roads; or

(c) the supply of food or drink for immediate consumption.

3.—(1) In this Schedule:—

(a) " company " includes any body corporate, and " subsidiary " has the same meaning as by virtue of Section 154 of the Companies Act 1948(a) it has for the purposes of that Act;

(b) " man-made fibres " means any textile fibres except—

(i) the natural growth of a plant, the hair or fleece of an animal, human hair or silk;

(ii) asbestos, metal, or glass fibres; or

(iii) rubber threads;

and " textile fibres " means continuous filaments, staple fibres or tow;

(c) " man-made fibres producing activities " means any one or more of the principal activities of the man-made fibres producing industry or of the activities included in that industry by virtue of paragraph 1(c) of this Schedule;

(d) " office premises " has the same meaning as in section 1(2) of the Offices, Shops and Railway Premises Act 1963(b);

(a) 11 & 12 Geo. 6. c. 38. (b) 1963 c. 41.

(e) "principal activities of the man-made fibres producing industry" means activities which, subject to the provisions of paragraph 2 of this Schedule, are specified in paragraph 1, other than sub-paragraphs (c) and (d) thereof, as activities of the man-made fibres producing industry;

(f) "related activities" means any of the following activities, that is to say—

(i) research, development, design or drawing;

(ii) buying, selling, letting out on hire, testing, advertising, packing, distribution, delivery, transport or any similar operations;

(iii) operations of a kind performed at office premises or laboratories, at stores, warehouses or similar places or at garages;

(iv) training of employees or apprentices;

(g) "rubber" means the following products, whether or not vulcanised or hardened, that is to say, natural rubber, balata, gutta percha, and similar natural gums, synthetic rubber and factice derived from oils and such substances reclaimed.

(2) For the purposes of this Schedule, two companies shall be taken to be associated companies if one is a subsidiary of the other, or both are subsidiaries of a third company, and "associated company" shall be construed accordingly.

SCHEDULE 2

MEMBERSHIP

1. The appointment of a member of the Board shall be for such term as the Minister may determine and, subject to the provisions of this Schedule, a member shall hold and vacate office in accordance with the terms of the instrument appointing him to be a member.

2. A person who has held office as a member of the Board shall be eligible for reappointment.

3. A member of the Board may resign his office by notice in writing to the Minister and the resignation shall have effect on such date as the Minister shall appoint.

4. If a member of the Board—

(a) is absent from meetings of the Board for more than six months consecutively, unless his absence is due to illness or some other reason approved by the Minister; or the Minister may declare the office of that member to be vacant and shall notify the fact in such manner as he shall think fit, and thereupon the office of the member shall become vacant.

(b) becomes in the opinion of the Minister unfit to continue in office or incapable of performing his duties;

PROCEEDINGS AND MEETINGS

5. At a meeting of the Board one-third of the members shall be the quorum, or if the number so ascertained includes a fraction the nearest higher whole number of members.

6. The chairman or if absent the deputy chairman (if any) shall preside at all meetings of the Board at which he shall be present, but if at any meeting the said chairman and any deputy chairman be not present within 10 minutes of the time appointed for holding the meeting the members present shall choose some one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

7. At a meeting of the Board a resolution put to the vote on any matter not relating to the imposition of a levy shall be decided on a show of hands of the members present and voting; each member shall have one vote and if the votes are equally divided the chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

8.—(1) If at a meeting of the Board a resolution relating to the imposition of a levy is put to the vote of the members appointed as mentioned in paragraph 3(a) of the Schedule to the Act, each such member shall have one vote, and the resolution shall be decided on a show of hands of those members present and voting unless a poll is demanded by any such member (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) in which case the poll shall be taken forthwith and the votes may be given either personally or by proxy.

(2) The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor, and the proxy shall be a member of the Board appointed as mentioned in paragraph 3(a) of the Schedule to the Act.

(3) An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form or a form as near thereto as circumstances admit:—

I ..... of ..... in the county of ..... being a member of the Man-made Fibres Producing Industry Training Board appointed as mentioned in paragraph 3(a) of the Schedule to the Industrial Training Act 1964, hereby appoint ..... of ..... or failing him ..... of ..... as my proxy to vote for me on my behalf on any matter relating to the imposition of a levy at the meeting of the said Board to be held on the ..... day of ..... 19.. and at any adjournment thereof.

Signed this ..... day of ..... 19..

(4) A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the proxy, provided that no intimation in writing of any such death, insanity or revocation shall have been received by the Board at its office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.

9. Minutes shall be kept of the proceedings of the Board and any such minutes shall, if signed by any person purporting to have acted as chairman of the meeting or at a meeting at which they were read, be evidence of the proceedings at the first-mentioned meeting, and a meeting to which any such minutes relate shall, unless the contrary is proved, be taken to have been regularly convened and constituted.

10. The Board shall have an office at which communications and notices will at all times be received and shall notify to the Minister the address of that office and any change of that address.

EXECUTION AND ISSUE OF INSTRUMENTS

11. The seal of the Board shall be authenticated by the signature of the chairman of the Board or some other member of the Board authorised by the Board to act in that behalf and of the secretary or some other person authorised by the Board so to act.

12. Every document purporting to be a document duly executed or issued either under the seal of the Board authenticated in the manner provided by this Schedule or on behalf of the Board, or purporting to be signed by the secretary or any other person, being a member, officer or servant of the Board authorised to act in that behalf, shall, until the contrary be proved, be deemed to be a document so executed or issued or so signed as the case may be.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order, which is made under the Industrial Training Act 1964, establishes an industrial training board to be known as the Man-made Fibres Producing Industry Training Board and defines the industry to which it relates. Provision is made as to the membership of the Board and its meetings and proceedings.
