SCHEDULE

MODIFICATIONS OF THE INJURY WARRANT, 1952, IN RELATION TO MINISTERS

In its application to persons holding office in Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom, the Injury Warrant, 1952, shall have effect as if:—

(a) in paragraph 4, in sub-paragraph (1), for the reference to any person who, not being a civil servant or an unestablished employee, is employed in a civil capacity for the purposes of Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom there were substituted a reference to a person who holds office in that Government, and for the words and figures "on or after the 14th day of July, 1949," there were substituted the words and figures "on or after the 1st day of August, 1957,";

(b) for paragraph 9 there were substituted the following paragraph:—

"9. In the application of this Warrant to a person holding office in Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom, the person shall be deemed to have been, when he sustained the injury, a civil servant, and for the purpose of calculating any award to be made to him or in respect of his death, he shall be deemed to have been receiving such salary and emoluments as shall be equal to the annual salary received by him at that date by virtue only of his holding office in Her Majesty's Government, and not by virtue of his being a member of the House of Commons, or, where he receives no salary by virtue of his holding such office, such salary and emoluments as the Treasury may determine in his particular case.";

(c) in paragraph 10, in sub-paragraphs (1), (2) and (3), the words "with the addition, in the case of a person who is not otherwise qualified for a pension, of one-sixtieth of such salary and emoluments for each completed year of his service" were deleted;

(d) in paragraph 11, for the words "When the service of a person to whom this Warrant applies, not being a person who retires by reason of his injury, is terminated otherwise than at his request or by reason of his misconduct," there were substituted the words "When a person holding office in Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom, being a person to whom this Warrant applies, but not being a person who retires by reason of his injury, ceases to hold such office,".

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Warrant, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Section 41 of the Superannuation Act, 1949, empowers the Treasury by Warrant to regulate the amount of payments to be made to civil servants and other persons employed by the Government in a civil capacity who are injured or who contract diseases in the discharge of their duties, or, if the injury or disease proves fatal within seven years, to their dependants. The Warrant now in force under the section is the Injury Warrant, 1952.

Section 3 of the Ministerial Salaries Act, 1957, extends section 41 of the Act of 1949 to Ministers.

This Warrant gives effect to section 3 by applying the Injury Warrant, 1952, with minor modifications to Ministers.
