1942. No. 182.

WARRANT dated 24th September, 1942, made by the Ministry of

(a) 17 & 18 Geo. 5, c. 16.
(b) 12 Geo. 5, c. 4.

Finance under section 1 of the Superannuation Act, 1887 (a) as amended by section 5 of the Superannuation Act, 1909 (b) and section 9 of the Superannuation Act (Northern Ireland), 1935 (c).

WHEREAS it is provided by the Superannuation Act, 1921 (d) (passed by the Parliament of Northern Ireland) that the provisions of the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1914, including the Superannuation Act, 1887, and the Superannuation Act, 1909, shall, subject as in the said Act of 1921 provided, apply to the civil service of Northern Ireland in like manner as they apply to the civil service of the United Kingdom, with certain modifications, including the substitution therein of the Ministry of Finance for the Treasury.

AND WHEREAS section 1 of the Superannuation Act, 1887, was amended in its application to the civil service of Northern Ireland by section 9 of the Superannuation Act (Northern Ireland), 1935 :

NOW,—THEREFORE, the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland (hereinafter referred to as " the Ministry ") in exercise of the powers conferred upon it by section one of the Superannuation Act, 1887, (as amended in its application as aforesaid by section nine of the Superannuation Act (Northern Ireland), 1935) and by section five of the Superannuation Act, 1909, hereby directs as follows :—

1. This Warrant shall apply to any person employed in the Civil Service of Northern Ireland (not being a " workman " as hereinafter defined) who is injured on or after the date of this Warrant—

(a) in the actual discharge of his duty ; and

(b) without his own default ; and

(c) by some injury specifically attributable to the nature of his duty, while carried, in pursuance of official instructions, in any aircraft.

2. Subject as hereinafter provided, any person to whom this Warrant applies and who retires by reason of his injury may be granted—

(a) if he is either an unestablished employee or an established officer who is not eligible for a pension in respect of his service, an annual allowance, according to the degree of impairment of his capacity to contribute to his support, not exceeding the proportion specified in the following table of his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury ; and

(b) if he is an established officer who is eligible for a pension in respect of his service, an annual allowance, according to the degree of impairment of his capacity to contribute to his support, not exceeding the proportion specified in the following

(a) 50 & 51 Vict., c. 67.
(b) 9 Edw. 7, c. 10.
(c) 26 Geo. 5 and 1 Edw. 8, c. 2.
(d) 12. Geo. 5, c. 3.

table of the difference between his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury and the amount of any pension, including the annuity value (computed in accordance with the tables for immediate life annuities framed under Part II of the Government Annuities Act, 1929, (a) which were in force at the time of his retirement) of any additional allowance, granted to him in respect of his service.

The Table above referred to.

Where the injured person's capacity to contribute to his support is—	Proportion.
Slightly impaired	One eighth
Impaired	One quarter
Materially impaired	Three eighths
Totally destroyed	One half

3. (1) In the case in which a person to whom this Warrant applies retires wholly or partly on account of age or infirmity, but his capacity to contribute to his support is, in the opinion of the Ministry, impaired by reason of his injury, the Ministry may make such award as it may think reasonable.

(2) If, for the purpose of assessing the amount of any allowance to any person to whom this Warrant applies, the degree of permanent impairment of his capacity to contribute to his support is in doubt, the Ministry may make a provisional award, to have effect until such time as the degree of permanent impairment can be finally determined.

(3) Where any person to whom this Warrant applies is unable to follow his employment by reason of his injury, but there is doubt whether or not he will retire by reason thereof, the Ministry, in any case in which that person either is not eligible for sick pay or is eligible for sick pay at a rate which is less than the rate of annual allowance which might be awarded to him under this Warrant if he retires by reason of his injury, may grant to him such provisional allowance as the Ministry may think reasonable.

(4) An annual allowance granted to any person to whom this Warrant applies shall not, together with any superannuation allowance (as defined in sub-section 3 of section 1 of the Superannuation Act, 1887, as amended by section 9 of the Superannuation Act (Northern Ireland) 1935) for which he is otherwise qualified, exceed five-sixths of his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury in respect of which such annual allowance is granted.

(a) 19 & 20 Geo. 5, c. 29.

Awards to Dependants of Deceased injured Persons.

4.—(1) If any person to whom this Warrant applies dies within seven years of the date of his injury and as a direct result thereof, there may be paid—

(a) to his widow (if she was married to him at the date of his injury), so long as she remains unmarried and of good character ;

(b) to his mother, if wholly dependent upon him for her support at the date of his death ; and

(c) in respect of each of his children who, in the case of legitimate children, were born not later than nine months after the date of his injury, and, in the case of step-children, illegitimate children or adopted children, were wholly or mainly dependent upon the deceased for support and were born or adopted before the date of his injury, an annual allowance, payable as from the date of the death of the deceased or, in the case of a posthumous child, from the date of its birth, not exceeding, as the case may be, the proportion, calculated in accordance with the following table, of the salary and emoluments of the deceased at the date of his injury.

	Proportion of Salary and Emoluments
The widow	One fourth
Each child, where the deceased leaves a widow to whom an award is granted ...	One twenty-fourth
Each child, where the deceased does not leave a widow to whom an award is granted ...	One twelfth
The dependent mother, where the deceased leaves a widow, but no children ...	One twenty-fourth
The dependent mother, where the deceased leaves a child or children, but no widow	One twelfth
The dependent mother, where the deceased leaves neither a widow nor any children	One fourth

Provided that—

(a) where the deceased leaves a widow to whom an award has been granted and who dies during the continuance of an allowance in respect of any child, the rate of allowance in respect of such child shall, as from the date of the death of the widow, be double the rate which would otherwise be payable under this paragraph in respect of such child ;

(b) the allowance in respect of any child shall cease to be payable when he or she attains the age of eighteen years ; and,

(c) the aggregate of the allowances payable in respect of children shall not exceed one-fourth of the salary and emoluments of the deceased at the date of the injury.

(2) Nothing in this paragraph shall permit the grant of any allowance in respect of a step-child, illegitimate child or adopted child at a higher rate than one one-twenty-fourth of the salary and emoluments of the deceased injured person at the date of his injury, unless the Ministry in any particular case otherwise directs.

5. Any award under this Warrant to any person, or to his widow or dependants, shall be in addition to any allowance or gratuity for which such person, his legal personal representatives or dependants may be eligible under the Superannuation Acts (Northern Ireland) 1921 to 1935, or any enactment thereby applied.

Awards to Injured Women and to Dependants of Women who Die as the Result of an Injury.

6. References in this Warrant to a widow or her husband shall, in their application to a woman employed in the Civil Service of Northern Ireland, be read as references to a widower or his wife, provided that nothing herein shall permit the grant of an annual allowance to a widower, or to children, in the case where the deceased leaves a widower, unless such widower was permanently incapacitated and was dependent upon the deceased at the date of her death.

7. The Warrant of the Ministry dated 4th November, 1925 (a), as amended by the Warrant of the Ministry dated 18th May, 1927 (b), shall not apply to any person to whom this Warrant applies.

8.—(1) In this Warrant, unless the context otherwise requires :—

the expression " emoluments " means emoluments which, if the recipient were an established officer, would be reckoned by the the Ministry in the calculation of any superannuation benefits which might be granted to such officer ;

the expression " salary and emoluments " means annual salary and emoluments ;

the expression " pension " means any superannuation or retiring or annual compensation allowance granted under the Superannuation Acts, (Northern Ireland), 1921 to 1935, or any enactment thereby applied ;

the expression " adopted child " means a child whom the deceased had, prior to the date of his injury, adopted within the meaning of any enactment for the time being in force in the locality in which he was domiciled at the date of his injury ; and

the expression "workman" does not include any person employed otherwise than by way of manual labour whose remuneration exceeds two hundred and fifty pounds a year but save as aforesaid means a workman as defined by the Workmen's Compensation Act (Northern Ireland), 1927 (c) and any statutory modification thereof, being a workman who

(a) is injured in Northern Ireland; or

(b) is injured outside Northern Ireland in circumstances in which compensation is payable in respect of such injury under any Act relating to workmen's compensation for the time being in force in Great Britain, Northern Ireland, the Isle of Man or Eire.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1921 (d), shall apply for the purpose of the interpretation of this Warrant as it applies for the purpose of the interpretation of an Act of the Parliament of Northern Ireland.

9. This Warrant may be cited as the Injury Warrant, No. 2, (Northern Ireland), 1942.
