CHAPTER 56

An Act to provide for carrying into effect Agreements with certain foreign Governments with respect to contracts of insurance and reinsurance made by persons who subsequently became enemies.

[30th October 1952.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Power of Her Majesty to give effect to certain Agreements relating to insurance contracts.

1.—(1) Her Majesty may by Order in Council do all such things as appear to her to be necessary for carrying into effect—

(a) an Agreement between His late Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and the Government of Finland relating to contracts of insurance and reinsurance, being an Agreement effected by an Exchange of Notes between those Governments on the twenty-eighth day of December, nineteen hundred and forty-nine;

(b) any future Agreement between Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and any foreign Government relating to contracts of insurance and reinsurance made by persons who subsequently became enemies as the result of any war in which His late Majesty was engaged.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the preceding subsection, an Order in Council under this section giving effect to any such Agreement as aforesaid may make provision for transferring, by virtue of the Order and without any liability to stamp duty, to such persons as may be determined by or under the Order any rights and liabilities vested in a custodian of enemy property which arise under contracts of insurance or reinsurance to which the Agreement relates.

(3) No recommendation shall be made to Her Majesty in Council to make an Order under this section unless a draft thereof has been laid before Parliament and has been approved by resolution of each House of Parliament.

(4) The power of making Orders in Council under this section shall be construed as including a power, exercisable in the like manner and subject to the like conditions, to revoke or vary any such Order.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the Insurance Contracts (War Settlement) Act, 1952.
