EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order revokes the International Organisations (Immunities and Privileges of the International Sugar Council) Order, 1954, and repeats its provisions subject to an amendment necessary to enable effect to be given to the International Sugar Agreement of 1958, laid before Parliament in draft on November 20, 1958. This Agreement replaces, with amendments, the International Agreement for the Regulation of the Production and Marketing of Sugar, 1953 (Cmd. 9815).

The only amendment to the provisions of the Order which this Order revokes is that article 3 of this Order takes account of the amendment to Article 38 (6) of the Agreement by which the Council is to enjoy exemption from taxation upon its "assets, income and other property" instead of only upon its "funds".

This Order will not come into force until the International Sugar Agreement of 1958 enters into force with respect to the United Kingdom. This date will, under the provisions of the Order, be notified in the London Gazette.
