EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

The Investment Grants Termination (No. 1) Order 1971 (S.I. 1971/1275) specified certain dates by which applications for investment grant in respect of expenditure incurred before a related date or in related periods must be made. This Order specifies further dates by which such applications in respect of expenditure incurred in further related periods must be made.

The Order also provides for the making of directions as to the form of such applications, the particulars they must contain and the documents to accompany them.
