RESOLVED THAT:—

1. In lieu of the duties of customs chargeable under paragraph 2 of the Isle of Man (Customs) Resolution, 1956, there shall on and after the 1st day of January, 1957, until the 1st day of August, 1957, be payable on the removal or importation of sweets (as defined by the said paragraph) into the Isle of Man the following duties of customs:—

(a) in the case of sparkling sweets, not exceeding 27 degrees proof spirit, a duty at the rate of one pound eight shillings and sixpence per gallon;

(a) 3 & 4 Eliz. 2. c. 17.

(c) Beef and veal preserved in any airtight container (including edible offals of beef and veal, but excluding sweetbreads, tongues and jellied veal)	10
(d) Extracts and essences wholly or in part derived from beef or veal	10

In this resolution, the expression " Empire Product " has the same meaning as in section 5 of the Act of 1919 as amended by any subsequent enactment.

(2) No duty shall be chargeable under this paragraph of this resolution in respect of any sausages or pastes.

(3) Any duty chargeable under this paragraph of this resolution shall be chargeable in addition to any other duty of customs for the time being chargeable thereon, whether under the Act of 1932 or otherwise, and goods chargeable with duty under this paragraph of this resolution shall for the purposes of Part I of the Act of 1932, be deemed not to be goods chargeable with a duty of customs by or under the provisions of any enactment relating to customs in the Isle of Man other than Part I of that Act.

3. On and after the 11th day of December, 1956—

(a) the rates of the duty of customs imposed by subsection (1) of section four of the Act of 1930 on hydrocarbon oils removed or imported into the Isle of Man; and

(b) the rates of the rebate allowed under subsection (2) of the said section four shall, instead of being the rates respectively specified in section one of the Act of 1952, be those rates increased by one shilling a gallon; and the rate of the duty of customs imposed by section three of the Act of 1938 on certain methylated spirits (which by virtue of section three of the Act of 1952 depends on one of the rates for the time being of the duty of customs imposed by the said section four) shall be increased accordingly.

4. On and after the 1st day of January, 1957, until the 1st day of August, 1957, there shall be charged on the removal or importation into the Isle of Man of petrol substitutes made in Great Britain or Northern Ireland a duty of customs at the rate of two shillings and threepence per gallon.

In this resolution the expression " petrol substitute " means any liquid (not including any substance which is gaseous at a temperature of 60 degrees fahrenheit and under a pressure of one atmosphere) intended to take the place of petrol as fuel for internal combustion piston engines, being neither a hydrocarbon oil nor power methylated spirits, and the expressions " hydrocarbon oil " and " power methylated spirits " have the same meanings as in the enactments relating to customs in the Isle of Man.

5. As from the 1st day of January, 1957, table waters shall cease to be exempted from the general ad valorem duty, and accordingly the First Schedule to the Act of 1932, and the Second Annex to the Import Duties (Exemptions Consolidation) (Isle of Man) Order, 1936, shall have effect and on after that day as if table waters were omitted therefrom.

6. This resolution may be cited as the Isle of Man (Customs) (No. 2) Resolution, 1956.

IT IS FURTHER RESOLVED:—

That it is expedient that the Isle of Man (Customs) (No. 2) Resolution, 1956, should, if confirmed under the Act of 1955, take effect as part of the law concerning customs duties in the Isle of Man.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order, which is made under the Isle of Man (Customs) Act, 1955, confirms a resolution of the Court of Tynwald imposing or increasing Isle of Man customs duties in respect of certain goods imported or removed to the Island, and making provisions in respect of Isle of Man customs duties corresponding to the customs and excise duty provisions in the Hydrocarbon Oil Duties (Temporary Increase) Bill of the United Kingdom.
