CHAPTER 46.

An Act to amend the Isle of Man (Officers) Act, 1876. A.D. 1882.

[18th August 1882.]

WHEREAS by the Isle of Man (Officers) Act, 1876, provision was made respecting the superannuation allowances or pensions of persons employed in permanent offices in the service of Her Majesty in the government of the Isle of Man, in cases where they have served Her Majesty in some other civil capacity: 39 & 40 Vict. c. 43.

And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Act as regards the calculation of the pension of such persons:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Calculation of superannuation allowance to person employed in Isle of Man. 22 Vict. c. 26.

1. Where a superannuation allowance is granted under the Superannuation Act, 1859, to any person who has been employed in a permanent office in the service of Her Majesty in the Government of the Isle of Man, and also in the permanent Civil Service of the State, and his salary and emoluments in respect of the permanent Isle of Man office or the office in the permanent Civil Service formerly held by him were greater than the salary and emoluments of the office from which he is retiring, the allowance in respect of so many years as he was entitled (whether as years of actual service or as years added to actual service) to reckon towards superannuation at the date of the cessation of the said greater salary and emoluments may be calculated on the basis of the same amount of salary and emoluments on which it would have been calculated if the said person had retired at the said date.
