EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order specifies the exceptions, adaptations and modifications to which the Children Act, 1948, is to be subject in its application to the Isles of Scilly. In particular, the Act will apply as if the council of the Isles were a local authority for the purposes of the Act and of the other enactments mentioned in section 38 as amended by the Children Act, 1958 (Article 2). The requirement of the Act that a local authority shall, except in special circumstances provided for in section 40 of the Act, appoint a children's committee to which their functions under certain enactments relating to children stand automatically referred will not apply to the council: instead, it is provided that they may delegate their functions to a committee established by them under the National Assistance Act, 1948 (Article 3).
