EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order, which is made under the Isle of Man (Customs) Act, 1955, confirms resolutions of the Court of Tynwald which

(a) confirm the reduction of the rates of customs duties (as temporarily increased) on hydrocarbon oils and petrol substitutes imported or removed into the Isle of Man to correspond with the rates applicable in the United Kingdom;

(b) continue the customs duties on certain goods which in the Isle of Man it is customary to impose from year to year;

(c) make provision for a preferential rate of duty on hop oil to correspond with the rate applicable in the United Kingdom;

(d) make provision for the calculation of duty on composite goods and matters connected therewith to correspond with provisions in the Finance Bill of the United Kingdom; and

(e) make provision for the imposition of customs duties on goods imported or removed into the Isle of Man to correspond with any customs duties levied in the United Kingdom under the Customs Duties (Dumping and Subsidies) Act, 1957.
