CHAPTER 28.

An Act to further amend the Law relating to Juries in Ireland. [30th June 1874.]

WHEREAS the law relating to juries in Ireland was amended by "The Juries (Ireland) Act, 1873," but the time during which the provisions of the said Act should be in force and operation was by the said Act limited to the eleventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five:

And whereas it is expedient that certain of the said provisions should continue in force and operation for a further limited time:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Juries (Ireland) Act, 1874;" and the Juries (Ireland) Acts, 1871 to 1873, and this Act shall be construed together as one Act, and the same may be cited for all purposes as "The Juries (Ireland) Acts, 1871 to 1874."

Certain provisions of 36 Vict. c. 27. continued.

2. The provisions of "The Juries (Ireland) Act, 1873," with the exception of sections three and eight, shall continue in force and operation until the eleventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six; and the said provisions of the said Act hereby continued shall be read and construed as if the words "one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six" were therein inserted instead of the words "one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five," and as if the words "in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four" were inserted in section five instead of the words "in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three."

CHAPTER 29.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Militia. [30th June 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the Militia:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Militia Law Amendment Act, 1874."

Power to Her Majesty to regulate the Militia by warrants and regulations, &c.

2. Subject to any Act of Parliament for the time being in force, Her Majesty may, by royal warrants, orders, and regulations, give directions as to the pay, promotion, clothing, and government of the Militia, and as to other matters and things relating to the Militia, in the same manner and to the same extent in and to which Her Majesty may, by royal warrants, orders, and regulations, give directions as to the pay, promotion, and government of Her Majesty's regular forces, and other matters and things relating to Her Majesty's regular forces.

Existing Militia Pay Acts to have

3. From and after the passing of this Act, the Militia Pay Acts shall cease to be of any force as Acts of Parliament, but shall have the same effect as if Her Majesty had,
