(31.) If any arbitrator appointed in pursuance of this Act die, or refuse, decline, or become incapable to act, the confirming authority may appoint an arbitrator in his place, who shall have the same powers and authorities as the arbitrator first appointed; and upon the appointment of any arbitrator in the place of an arbitrator dying, or refusing, declining, or becoming incapable to act, all the documents relating to the matter of the arbitration which were in the possession of such arbitrator shall be delivered to the arbitrator appointed in his place, and the local authority shall publish notice of such appointment in the London Gazette.

(32.) All notices required by this schedule to be published shall be published in some one and the same newspaper circulating within the jurisdiction of the local authority, and where no other form of service is prescribed all notices required to be served or given by the local authority under this schedule or otherwise upon any persons interested in or entitled to sell lands, shall be served in manner in which notices of lands proposed to be taken compulsorily for the purpose of an improvement scheme are directed by this Act to be served upon owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers.

CHAPTER 37.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Juries in Ireland. [29th June 1875.]

WHEREAS the law relating to juries in Ireland was amended by "The Juries (Ireland) Act, 1873," but the time during which the provisions of the said Act should be in force and operation was by the said Act limited to the eleventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five:

And whereas by "The Juries (Ireland) Act, 1874," the provisions of "The Juries (Ireland) Act, 1873," with the exception of sections three and eight, were continued in force and operation until the eleventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six:

And whereas it is expedient that the said provisions so continued should continue in force and operation for a further limited time:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Juries (Ireland) Act, 1875," and the Juries (Ireland) Acts, 1871 to 1874, and this Act shall be construed together as one Act, and the same may be cited for all purposes as "The Juries (Ireland) Acts, 1871 to 1875."

Certain provisions of 36 & 37 Vict. c. 27. continued.

2. The provisions of "The Juries (Ireland) Act, 1873," with the exception of sections three and eight, shall continue in force and operation until the eleventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and the said provisions of the said Act hereby continued shall be read and construed as if the words "one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven" were therein inserted instead of the words "one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five," and as if the words "and in the years one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four and one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five" were inserted in section five of the said Act after the words "in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three."
