(b) the rate of pay of a sergeant who was promoted to that rank on or after the twenty-third day of April, 1956, and before the twenty-third day of April, 1957, shall from the twenty-second day of April, 1958, be in accordance with a scale which begins with the rate of £670 a year and increases on the completion of her second year of service in that rank to the rate of £695 a year, and on the completion of her third year of service in that rank to the rate of £715 a year.

(c) the rate of pay of a sergeant who was promoted to that rank on or after the twenty-third day of April, 1955, and before the twenty-third day of April, 1956, shall from the twenty-second day of April, 1958, be in accordance with a scale which begins with the rate of £695 a year and increases on the completion of her third year of service in that rank to the rate of £715 a year.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of section two of the Constabulary and Police (Ireland) Act, 1883(a), no deduction in respect of station accommodation shall be made from the pay prescribed in this Schedule.

3. Where a person who has previously been a member rejoins the force the Inspector General may, if he so thinks fit, allow the period which at the date of the termination of her previous service had been credited to her for the purpose of pay to be, in whole or in part, similarly credited to her for purposes of pay on her rejoining the force.

4. Where, within the meaning of the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Orders, 1949 to 1958, a regular policewoman in Great Britain has transferred to the force, she shall be entitled to reckon for purposes of pay in the rank in which she joins the force all service in the same rank which, at the date of the transfer, she was entitled to reckon for purposes of pay in the force from which she transferred.

5. Where a person who has been a regular policewoman in Great Britain, within the meaning of the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Orders, 1949 to 1958, joins the force she shall, if the Ministry in its discretion thinks fit, be entitled to reckon for purposes of pay her period of service in the force in Great Britain.

1959. No. 81 [C]

JURIES: PAYMENT OF JURORS

ORDER*, DATED 5TH MAY, 1959, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS, WITH THE APPROVAL OF THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE, UNDER SECTION ONE OF THE JURIES ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1953.

I, the Right Honourable W. W. B. Topping, Q.C., Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland, in exercise of the powers conferred on me by Section One of the Juries Act (Northern Ireland), 1953(b), and after consultation with the Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland, do hereby make the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Jurors' Allowances Order (Northern Ireland), 1959, and shall come into force on 1st September, 1959.

(a) 46 Vict. c. 14. (b) 1953. c. 19.

* The above Order was confirmed by resolution of the Senate on the 25th day of June, 1959, and by resolution of the House of Commons on the 30th day of June, 1959.

2. The Order dated the 10th day of August, 1953(a), is hereby revoked.

3. There shall be paid to every person who, in obedience to a summons to serve as a juror, attends for such service and is sworn as a juror at the Royal Courts of Justice (Ulster), the Belfast City Commission, the Assizes for the City of Londonderry, or the Courts of Quarter Sessions for the Cities of Belfast or Londonderry, the sum of twenty-seven shillings for each day on which he serves as a juror.

4. There shall be paid to every person who, in obedience to a summons to serve as a juror, attends for such service at the Royal Courts of Justice (Ulster), the Belfast City Commission, the Assizes for the City of Londonderry, or the Courts of Quarter Sessions for the Cities of Belfast or Londonderry, but who is not sworn as a juror, the sum of thirteen shillings and six pence for each day on which he so attends and is not so sworn.

5. There shall be paid to every person who, in obedience to a summons to serve as a juror, attends for such service at any court of assize other than the Belfast City Commission or the Assizes for the City of Londonderry, the sum of forty shillings for each day on which he so attends, whether he is sworn or not.

6. There shall be paid to every person who, in obedience to a summons to serve as a juror, attends for such service at any court of quarter sessions other than the Courts of Quarter Sessions for the Cities of Belfast or Londonderry the sum of twenty-seven shillings for each day on which he so attends, whether he is sworn or not.

7. A person who serves as a juror for part of a day shall be paid the sum he would have received had he served the whole of that day.

8. A talesman who is sworn as a juror though not summoned as such shall be paid the sum he would have received if he had attended and served as such juror in obedience to a summons.

Dated this 5th day of May, 1959.

W. W. B. Topping,
Minister of Home Affairs
for Northern Ireland.

The Ministry of Finance hereby approves of the foregoing Order.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland this 8th day of May, nineteen hundred and fifty-nine.

(L.S.)

W. W. Arthur,
Assistant Secretary.
