Now, therefore, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother and Her Royal Highness The Princess Margaret, being authorised thereto by the said Letters Patent and in pursuance of the powers conferred by the Juries Act, 1922(a), do hereby, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, on Her Majesty's behalf order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. In paragraph (1) of Article 2 of the Juries (No. 2) Order, 1949(b) (which relates to the supplying of the names of jurors), for the words "the thirtieth day of November" there shall be substituted the words "the twentieth day of October".

2.—(1) In paragraph (1) of Article 3 of the said Order (which relates to the hearing of objections to being marked as a juror) for the words "the twenty-fifth day of January" there shall be substituted the words "the seventeenth day of December".

(2) In paragraph (3) of the said Article 3 for the words "the fifteenth day of February" there shall be substituted the words "the tenth day of January".

3. This Order may be cited as the Juries Order, 1954.

W. G. Agnew.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order amends the Juries (No. 2) Order, 1949, consequentially on the alteration of the qualifying date for parliamentary elections and of the date of publication of the registers of parliamentary electors in England and Wales by the Electoral Registers Act, 1953 (2 & 3 Eliz. 2. c. 8.).

1954 No. 1627 (L. 19)

The Jurors' Allowances Regulations, 1954

Made - - - -	6th December, 1954
Coming into Operation	1st January, 1955

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by section one of the Juries Act, 1949(c), as amended by the Juries Act, 1954(d), I hereby, with the consent of the Treasury, make the following Regulations:—

1. The travelling allowance to which a juror is entitled under section one of the Act shall be in accordance with the rates set out in the Schedule hereto.

2.—(1) The subsistence allowance to which a juror is entitled under section one of the Act shall, in respect of the period of time on any one day during which he is necessarily away from his place of residence or of business or employment for the purpose of serving as a juror, be—

(a) where the said period is not more than four hours, three shillings and sixpence; or

---

(a) 12 & 13 Geo. 5. c. 11.
(b) S.I. 1949/2391 (1949 I, p. 2374).
(c) 12, 13 & 14 Geo. 6. c. 27.
(d) 2 & 3 Eliz. 2. c. 41.

(b) where the said period is more than four hours, seven shillings.

(2) Where a person is so away overnight from his place of residence, the said allowance shall be increased by the amount of any expenses, not being more than twenty-seven shillings and sixpence, reasonably incurred by him for board and lodging for that night.

3. The compensation for loss of earnings which a juror would otherwise have made or additional expense (other than expense on account of travelling or subsistence) to which he would not otherwise have been subject to which he is entitled under section one of the Act, shall be the amount of the said loss or additional expense:

Provided that the amount payable under this Regulation to a person in respect of his services as a juror on any one day shall not exceed—

(a) where the period of time over which the earnings are lost or additional expense is incurred is not more than four hours, the sum of fifteen shillings; or

(b) where the said period of time is more than four hours, the sum of thirty shillings.

4.—(1) In these Regulations any reference to a juror shall include a reference to a person who, in obedience to a summons to serve on a jury, attends for service as a juror notwithstanding that he is not subsequently sworn and any reference to service as a juror shall be construed accordingly.

(2) In these Regulations the expression "the Act" means the Juries Act, 1949, as amended by the Juries Act, 1954.

5. The Interpretation Act, 1889(a), shall apply to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

6. The Jurors' Allowances Regulations, 1949(b), are hereby revoked.

7. These Regulations may be cited as the Jurors' Allowances Regulations, 1954, and shall come into operation on the first day of January, 1955.

G. Lloyd-George,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

3rd December, 1954.

We consent,

Edward Heath,
Martin Redmayne,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

6th December, 1954.

SCHEDULE Regulation 1

1. Where a person travels by railway or other public conveyance, the allowance shall be the amount of the fare actually paid:

Provided that—

(i) only the amount of the third class fare shall be allowed for travel by railway;

(ii) if reduced fare tickets are available for the double journey only the amount of the reduced fare shall be allowed.

(a) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63. (b) S.I. 1949/1694 (1949 I, p. 2376).

2. Where no railway or other public conveyance is available and a person necessarily travels by a hired vehicle, the allowance shall be the amount actually paid for the hire of the vehicle or at the rate of one shilling and sixpence a mile for each mile necessarily travelled to and from court, whichever is the less.

3. Where a person travels by private conveyance, the allowance shall, in a case where the use of a private conveyance results in a substantial saving of time or is otherwise reasonable, be at a rate not exceeding sixpence a mile for each mile necessarily travelled to and from court, and, in any other case, be at a rate not exceeding twopence a mile for each mile necessarily travelled as aforesaid.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations make provision as to the amounts payable under section one of the Juries Act, 1949, as amended by the Juries Act, 1954, to jurors in respect of jury service. They replace the Jurors' Allowances Regulations, 1949, and the changes of substance are as follows:—

Alteration is made in the rate of the travelling allowance in the case of a person travelling by private conveyance (Regulation 1 and Schedule), the subsistence allowance is increased (Regulation 2) and the maximum rate of allowance for compensation for loss of earnings or additional expense incurred is increased (Regulation 3).
