2. Where the person travels by public transport the allowance shall, subject to paragraph 3, be the fare actually paid for the journey.

4. Where a person travels by private motor-car, the allowance for the journey shall be at the rate of 5.5p a mile, except where the use of the motor-car results in a substantial saving of time or is otherwise reasonable, in which case the allowance shall be at the rate of 11p a mile.

5. Where a person travels by private motor-cycle, the allowance for the journey shall be at the rate of 2.5p a mile.

(b) in any other case, the amount of the fare for travel by the appropriate public services.

8. In this Part "journey" means the return journey between the person's place of residence or, where appropriate, usual place of business or employment and the court.

PART II

Attendance Allowances

9.—(1) Where a person attends to serve as a juror in obedience to a summons there shall be paid to him for each day on which he so attends an amount in accordance with sub-paragraph (2)(a) or (b), depending on whether or not he is sworn as a juror.

(b) where such person is not so sworn, be £1.50.

(3) Where in consequence of his attendance in any day—

(i) he has necessarily incurred expenditure (other than on travelling or subsistence) to which he would not otherwise be subject, or

(ii) he has incurred any loss of earnings or of benefit under the enactments relating to social security, exceeding the appropriate amount specified in sub-paragraph (2)(a) or (b), the amount payable under that sub-paragraph for that day may be increased to an amount not exceeding £9.80.

(4) Where, in obedience to a summons to serve on a jury, a person has so served on more than ten days, the amount payable in respect of any one day after the tenth day may exceed the amount specified in sub-paragraph (3) but the total amount payable shall not exceed £19.60.
