CHAPTER 21.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Qualification of Jurors in Ireland.

[30th June 1876.]

WHEREAS by the Juries (Ireland) Acts, 1871 to 1872, the laws relating to juries in Ireland were amended and consolidated:

And whereas by the Juries (Ireland) Act, 1873, temporary provisions were made altering and raising the qualification of jurors, and the said provisions have by divers Acts from time to time been continued for limited periods:

And whereas it is expedient that other and further provisions should be made to alter and raise the qualification of jurors, and that such provisions should continue in force during the limited period by this Act prescribed:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Jurors Qualification (Ireland) Act, 1876," and the Juries (Ireland) Acts, 1871 to 1872, as amended by this and any other Act, and this Act may be cited together as "the Juries (Ireland) Acts."

Qualification of jurors.

2. The provisions in this section contained shall be in force and have effect with respect to the qualification of jurors from and after the eleventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and the said provisions shall be in lieu of and in substitution for the provisions of section five of the Juries Act, Ireland, 1871, and the said Act shall be read and construed as if they were therein substituted for the said section five.

Every man being a subject of the Queen, between the ages of twenty-one and sixty-five years, residing in any county or in any borough having a separate court of sessions of the peace, or a court of record for the trial of civil actions,

(1.) Who shall have in his own name or in trust for him a clear income of ten pounds by the year in lands and tenements of freehold tenure situate in such county or borough, or in rents issuing out of any such lands or tenements, or in such lands, tenements, and rents taken together, in fee simple, or fee tail, or for any life or lives whatsoever; or

(2.) Who shall have a clear income of twenty pounds by the year in lands or tenements situate in such county or borough, held by lease originally made for an absolute term of not less than twenty-one years, whether the same shall or shall not be determinable on any life or lives; or

(3.) Who shall be, either in his own name or as a member of a firm or copartnership, rated for the relief of the poor in respect of lands, tenements, or hereditaments within such county or borough, of the net annual value fixed for such county or borough in the first schedule to this Act; or

(4.) Who shall be a director or manager of any banking, railway, insurance, steamship, shipping, or other company incorporated by any charter, or by or under the provisions of any Act of Parliament, and carrying on any such business within such county or borough; or

(5.) Who shall be a member of any board of harbour commissioners or other body entrusted under the provisions of any Act of Parliament with the management of any harbour or docks within such county or borough;

shall if residing in any such county as aforesaid be qualified and liable (save as exempted or disqualified) to serve on all juries for the trial of all issues, civil and criminal, joined in any of the Queen's courts of law and equity and triable in such county, and shall also be qualified and liable (save as exempted or disqualified) to serve on grand juries at the general sessions of the peace within such county, and on every inquest or inquiry to be taken or made in such county by or before any sheriff or coroner, or by or before any master or commissioner appointed by any of the superior courts of common law or equity, or by or before any commissioner appointed under the great seal or the seal of the Court of Exchequer, and shall if residing in any such borough as aforesaid be qualified and liable (save as exempted or disqualified) to serve on grand juries at sessions of the peace in such borough, and also upon juries for the trial of all issues, civil and criminal, joined in any court of sessions of the peace, and in any court of record for the trial of civil actions, triable in such borough: Provided always, that for the purposes of this Act, as regards any county of a city, county of a town, or borough, having a separate court of sessions of the peace or a court of record for the trial of civil actions, any such director, manager, member of such board or body so entrusted as aforesaid, and any other such person as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be resident therein in case he, or the company of which he shall be a director or manager, or the board or body of which he shall be such member as aforesaid, shall have or occupy a counting-house, office, shop, or place of business in such county of a city, county of a town, or borough as aforesaid, although such director, manager, member of such board or body so entrusted as aforesaid, or other such person, may not actually reside therein, provided that he resides within twelve statute miles of the court-house of such county of a city, county of a town, or borough as aforesaid, and in the county of the city of Dublin within a like distance of the General Post Office in Dublin, to be computed by the nearest public road or way. And such counting-house, office, shop, or place of business shall in the proper column of "The General List of Jurors," and "List of Special Jurors," containing such directors, managers, members, or person's name, be stated as the place of abode of such person, and a summons for the attendance of a juror left at the place stated in the general jurors' book or special jurors' book as the place of abode of such juror, with any person inhabiting therein, shall be deemed to have been duly served upon such juror.

As to jurors property qualification.

3. In ascertaining the net annual value of the property qualification of a juror in the city of Dublin, mentioned in the first and second schedules to this Act, the annual value of any house or tenement, the owner whereof is under the sixty-third section of the Act 12 and 13 Victoria, chapter 91, rated instead of the occupier thereof, shall not be reckoned or taken into account.

Clerk of the peace to prepare "lists of special jurors."

4. The provisions in this section contained shall from and after the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, be in substitution for the provisions of section eleven of the Juries Act, Ireland, 1871, and the said Act shall be read and construed as if they were therein substituted for the said section eleven.

The clerk of the peace of every county in Ireland, on or before the fifteenth day of August in every year, shall, from each of the general lists of jurors furnished to him under the Juries (Ireland) Acts, cause to be made out for each barony of such county a true and complete list, in the Form O. set forth in the third schedule to this Act annexed, containing the names of every person contained in the list furnished to him as aforesaid for such barony.

Who shall be, either in his own name or as a member of a firm or copartnership, rated for the relief of the poor in respect of lands, tenements, or hereditaments within such county or borough, of the net annual value fixed for such county or borough in the second schedule to this Act;

And the names contained in each of the said lists to be made out by such clerk of the peace shall be arranged in alphabetical order of surnames and consecutively numbered, and each such list shall contain the like particulars in every respect as the lists furnished to him as aforesaid, and when so made out shall be called the "list of special jurors" for the barony of the county for which the same shall have been made out, and such clerk of the peace shall, at the foot or end of every such "list of special jurors" made out by him, sign a declaration that such "list of special jurors" has been fully and correctly prepared by him from the "general list of jurors" from which such "list of special jurors" shall have been made out by him.

Form of precept.

5. The precepts of the several clerks of the peace for the return of lists of jurors to be issued under the Juries (Ireland) Acts after the passing of this Act shall be according to the forms in the third schedule to this Act annexed, and any person to whom any such precept shall be issued shall and is hereby directed to perform and comply with all the requisitions contained in such precept.

Duration of Act.

6. This Act shall continue in operation until the eleventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

CHAPTER 22.

An Act to amend the Trade Union Act, 1871. [30th June 1876.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Trade Union Act, 1871:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Construction and short title.

1. This Act and the Trade Union Act, 1871, herein-after termed the principal Act, shall be construed as one Act, and may be cited together as the "Trade Union Acts, 1871 and 1876," and this Act may be cited separately as the "Trade Union Act Amendment Act, 1876."

Trade unions to be within s. 28 of Friendly Societies Act, 1875.

2. Notwithstanding anything in section five of the principal Act contained, a trade union, whether registered or unregistered, which insures or pays money on the death of a child under ten years of age shall be deemed to be within the provisions of section twenty-eight of the Friendly Societies Act, 1875.

Amendment of s. 8 of principal Act.

3. Whereas by section eight of the principal Act it is enacted that "the real or personal "estate of any branch of a trade union shall be vested in the trustees of such branch:" The said section shall be read and construed as if immediately after the herein-before recited words there were inserted the words "or of the trustees of the trade union, if the "rules of the trade union so provide."

Provision in case of absence, &c. of trustee.

4. When any person, being or having been a trustee of a trade union or of any branch of a trade union, and whether appointed before or after the legal establishment thereof, in whose name any stock belonging to such union or branch transferable at the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland is standing, either jointly with another or others, or solely, is absent from Great Britain or Ireland respectively, or becomes bankrupt, or files any petition, or executes any deed for liquidation of his affairs by assignment or arrangement, or for composition with his creditors, or becomes a lunatic, or is dead, or has been removed from his office of trustee, or if it be unknown whether such person is living or dead, the registrar, on application in writing from the secretary and three members of the union or branch, and on proof satisfactory to him, may direct the transfer of the stock into the names of any other persons as trustees for the union or branch; and such transfer shall be made by the surviving or continuing trustees, and if there be no such trustee, or if such trustees refuse or be unable to make such transfer, and the registrar so direct, then by the Accountant-General or Deputy or Assistant Accountant-General of the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland, as the case may be; and the Governors and Companies of the Bank of England and Bank of Ireland respectively are hereby indemnified for anything done by them or any of their officers in pursuance of this provision against any claim or demand of any person injuriously affected thereby.

Jurisdiction of offences.

5. The jurisdiction conferred in the case of certain offences by section twelve of the principal Act upon the court of summary jurisdiction for the place in which the registered office of a trade union is situate may be exercised either by that court or by the court of summary jurisdiction for the place where the offence has been committed.

Registry of unions doing

6. Trade unions carrying or intending to carry on business in more than one country shall be registered in the country in which their registered office is situate; but copies of
