EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

The Second Schedule to the Justices' Allowances Regulations, 1953, prescribes the rates of lodging allowance payable under section 8 of the Justices of the Peace Act, 1949, to a justice of the peace for each night in respect of which expenditure on accommodation for the night is necessarily incurred by him for the purpose of enabling him to perform any of his duties as a justice. The present Regulations increase the rates so prescribed, other than those prescribed in respect of expenditure incurred on sleeping accommodation in a railway train. The rate, where the duties are performed in London, is increased from 30s. to 37s. 6d., and in other cases from 23s. to 30s.
