Whereas the Secretary of State in accordance with section 4 of and Schedule 1 to the Wages Councils Act 1959(a) published notice of her intention to make an order abolishing the Jute Wages Council (Great Britain):

And whereas no objection has been made with respect to the draft order referred to in the said notice:

Now, therefore, the Secretary of State in exercise of her powers under section 4(1) of and paragraph 4 of Schedule 1 to the said Act, and of all other powers enabling her in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

1. The Jute Wages Council (Great Britain) is hereby abolished.

2.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Jute Wages Council (Great Britain) (Abolition) Order 1969 and shall come into operation on 27th October 1969.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889(b) applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

29th August 1969.

Barbara Castle,
First Secretary of State and Secretary of State for Employment and Productivity.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

The Jute Trade Board (Great Britain) was established in 1919 and operated in relation to workers employed in the preparing, spinning or weaving of jute or of jute and any other fibre except flax or hemp. The constitution was changed in 1934 and it was converted into a Wages Council by virtue of the Wages Councils Act 1945, being continued in force as such by the Wages Councils Act 1959.

This Order abolishes the Wages Council.
