Made - - - - 29*th July*, 1952
Coming into Operation 20*th August*, 1952

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of July, 1952

Present

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by paragraph 2 of the Second Schedule to the Children and Young Persons Act, 1933(a) (hereinafter called " the Act of 1933 "), as amended by section seven of the Children and Young Persons Act, 1938(b), it is provided that Her Majesty may by Order in Council specify as respects the metropolitan police court area the places (which, notwithstanding anything in the Metropolitan Police Courts Acts, 1839 and 1840(c), may be places other than police courts) in which juvenile courts are to sit, and assign as a division to each such place such portion of that area as may be specified in the Order, and direct for the purposes of the constitution of a juvenile court in that area the manner in which the justices of the peace for the county of London shall be selected from a panel of such justices nominated from time to time by the Secretary of State:

And Whereas by the Act of 1933 it is further provided that any such Order in Council may contain such supplemental, incidental and consequential provisions as appear to Her Majesty in Council to be necessary or proper for the purposes of the Order and may be revoked or varied by a subsequent Order:

And Whereas by subsection (5) of section eleven of the Justices of the Peace Act, 1949(d), it is provided that the metropolitan police magistrates and other justices for the county of London may exercise, in relation to the City of London, any jurisdiction which may be exercised by a juvenile court as if the City were included in the county of London, and by subsection (6) of the said section eleven it is provided that references in the Second Schedule to the Act of 1933 to the metropolitan police court area shall include the City:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of the powers vested in Her by paragraph 2 of the Second Schedule to the Act of 1933, as amended and extended as aforesaid, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

(i) if that day is a Monday, be held on the succeeding day; and

(ii) in any other case, be held on the preceding day.

3. A juvenile court may sit at any time, in case of need, in a magistrate's room at Bow Street Police Court for the purpose of hearing cases arising in any part of the metropolitan police court area.

4. The justices of the peace for the county of London who are to sit at the several sittings of the juvenile courts shall be selected by the panel of justices nominated by the Secretary of State and by the metropolitan police magistrates nominated by the Secretary of State to act as chairmen of juvenile courts within the metropolitan police court area.
