JUVENILE COURTS AND OFFENDERS

The Juvenile Courts (London) Order 1962

Made - - - - 30*th July* 1962
Coming into Operation 10*th September* 1962

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of July 1962

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, in pursuance of the powers conferred on Her by paragraph 2 of Schedule 2 to the Children and Young Persons Act 1933(a), as amended by section 7 of the Children and Young Persons Act 1938(b), and as extended by section 11 (6) of the Justices of the Peace Act 1949(c), is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. Juvenile courts for the metropolitan stipendiary court area shall sit in the places specified in the first column of the Schedule hereto and there shall be assigned to each place as a division that portion of the said area which is specified, opposite to that place, in the second column of that Schedule.

2. A juvenile court sitting in a place specified in the first column of the Schedule hereto shall be held in every week on the day or days and at the time specified, opposite to that place, in the third column of that Schedule and on such other days and at such other times as may be necessary for the transaction of business:

Provided that a juvenile court sitting as aforesaid which would, in pursuance of the foregoing provisions of this Article, be held on a day when the metropolitan magistrates' courts are closed shall not be held on that day but shall—

(i) if that day is a Monday, be held on the succeeding day, and

(ii) in any other case, be held on the preceding day, and if on any particular occasion the Secretary of State so directs, a juvenile court sitting as aforesaid shall, instead of being held on the day and at the time on which it would he held in pursuance of the foregoing provisions of this Article, be held on such a day and at such a time as may be specified in the direction.

3. A juvenile court may sit at any time, in case of need, in a magistrate's room at Bow Street magistrates' court for the purpose of hearing cases arising in any part of the metropolitan stipendiary court area.

4. The justices of the peace for the county of London who are to sit at the several sittings of the juvenile courts shall be selected by the panel of justices nominated by the Secretary of State and by the metropolitan stipendiary magistrates nominated by the Secretary of State to act as chairmen of juvenile courts within the metropolitan stipendiary court area.

(a) 23 & 24 Geo. 5. c. 12. (b) 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 40. (c) 12, 13 & 14 Geo. 6. c. 101.

5. Any reference in this Order to the metropolitan stipendiary court area shall include the City of London.

6. The Juvenile Courts (London) Order 1959(a), the Juvenile Courts (London) Order 1961(b) and the Juvenile Courts (London) (No. 2) Order 1961(c) are hereby revoked.

7. This Order may be cited as the Juvenile Courts (London) Order 1962 and shall come into operation on 10th September 1962.

W. G. Agnew.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order consolidates with amendment the Orders revoked by Article 6. The changes of substance are that the North London Juvenile Court hitherto sitting at Friends House, Euston Road, N.W.1, ceases to exist, and the area assigned to it is in part assigned to the East London Juvenile Court, The Court House, 58B, Bow Road, E.3, and in part to a new Marylebone Juvenile Court sitting at 163A, Seymour Place, W.1, to which latter court is also transferred part of the area hitherto assigned to the Chelsea Juvenile Court, Walton Street, S.W.3.
